Mental Health First Aid Training - Free Certification

Details: Mental Health First Aid is an 8-hour training course designed to give members of the public key skills to help someone who is developing a mental health problem or experiencing a mental health crisis. Just as CPR training helps a layperson without medical training assist an individual following a heart attack, Mental Health First Aid training helps a layperson assist someone experiencing a mental health crisis, learning about risk factors and warning signs for mental health and addiction concerns in both crisis and non-crisis situations. Upon completion of the training, you will walk away with a 3-year MHFA Certification. This training is being offered at no cost. Mental Health First Aid training on January 11 & 12 will be on the Wofford Campus. To register for this event and get more information use the following link:

Poll about Wofford EMS

Details: Hello everyone, My name is Hisham Qadri. I am doing some research on the viability of creating a student EMS service at Wofford. One of the key pieces of viability of creating a student EMS service at Wofford. One of the key pieces of information I currently need is to see how many students are currently EMT-1 and would be interested in volunteering to be on a student EMS service. This idea is still in its proposal stages and I cannot promise that we will create a team but, gathering all the information I can will help me. Thank you all and lets have a great 2018. ### Mental Health First Aid - Free Certification

Details: Mental Health First Aid is an 8-hour training course designed to give members of the public key skills to help someone who is developing a mental health problem or experiencing a mental health crisis. Just as CPR training helps a layperson without medical training assist an individual following a heart attack, Mental Health First Aid training helps a layperson assist someone experiencing a mental health crisis, learning about risk factors and warning signs for mental health and addiction concerns in both crisis and non-crisis situations. Upon completion of the training, you will walk away with a 3-year MHFA Certification. This training is being offered at no cost. Mental Health First Aid training on January 11 & 12 will be on the Wofford Campus. To register for this event and get more information use the following link:

Date: January 9, 2018 at 10:12 AM
To: Wofford Staff and Faculty WoffordStaff@Wofford.Edu

Wofford Faculty and Staff:

We encourage and appreciate faculty and staff attendance at both men's and women's basketball games.

We want to clarify the process for entrance to these games.

Faculty and staff are allowed two (2) tickets per game (at no charge) – one for you and one for a guest – using your Wofford ID.

For men's games: All tickets for men's basketball games are assigned seating. Faculty and staff must pick up your tickets on game day by presenting your ID at the ticket window inside Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium. You will receive tickets for assigned seats.

For women's games: All tickets for women's games are general admission seating. Faculty and staff should present your ID to the event staff person for admission to the arena; you do not need to go to the ticket office for tickets to women's games. Again, seating is general admission.

Note that ALL faculty and staff must enter the building through the front entrance of Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium on Cumming Street; the side entrance is reserved for students only.

Thank you for attention to these procedures. If you have questions, please contact Shelby Taylor at taylorsh@wofford.edu or at ext. 4091 (864-597-4091).

M. Butterfly Tickets on Sale Now

Details: Tickets are on sale now for Pulp Theatre's production of M. Butterfly! Purchase tickets online now to take advantage of our discounted rates! Inspired by real life events, David Henry Hwang's Tony Award-winning play M. Butterfly tells the spellbinding story of an illicit, long-standing love affair between a French diplomat and a beautiful Chinese opera performer who harbors more than one explosive secret. Director Mae Hoffman, a senior Theatre major at Wofford, leads the student-run Pulp Theatre team as they bring to life Hwang's unforgettable meditation on gender politics, sexuality, race, and power. The show runs from Jan. 25-27, at 8 p.m. each night, in the Sallenger Sisters Black Box Theatre in the Rosalind Sallenger Richardson Center for the Arts. Special rates apply for tickets purchased online at www.wofford.edu/boxoffice, or via the Wofford Theatre Facebook page: student tickets are $3 online and $5 at the door, and all other tickets are $8 online and $10 at the door.

Wofford Campus Community:

We are and will continue monitoring the weather forecast for tonight into early Wednesday morning.

Please be reminded of Wofford's inclement weather policy:

Wofford College ordinarily does not close because of weather that brings snow and ice to the area. Every effort will be made to hold classes and to have offices open. Commuting students and employees should understand that classes are held, but that they are to run no unreasonable risk to get to the campus. Students will be expected to make up missed work.

If an exception is made to this policy, notice will be given through the Wofford email system, Wofford web site (www.wofford.edu), Wofford official Facebook page (www.facebook.com/woffordcollege/) and, if the situation warrants, through the Wofford Emergency Alert System (Rave). Notice also will be provided to local television and radio stations.

If there is no cancelation or delay notice on these sources, it is safe to assume that the college is open and conducting classes as usual.

Upcoming Events

#standup and LEARN IT - Threatened. Attacked. Jailed. Could you get on the bus?

Date/Time: 1/19/2018 6:00:00 PM

Location: Meadors Multicultural House (AMS/NPHC)

Cost:

Details: Freedom Riders is the powerful, harrowing and ultimately inspirational story of the six months in 1961 that changed America forever. From May until November 1961, more than 400 black and white Americans risked their lives and many endured savage beatings and imprisonment for simply traveling together on buses and trains as they journeyed through the Deep South. Deliberately violating Jim Crow laws in order to test and challenge a segregated interstate travel system, the Freedom Riders met with bitter racism and mob violence along the way, sorely testing their belief in nonviolent activism (pbs.org). The documentary will be shown in the Meadors Multicultural House (AMS/NPHC) beginning at 6 p.m. *Snacks and drinks provided. Co-Sponsored by: Association of Multicultural Students

M. Butterfly Tickets on Sale Now

Details: Tickets are on sale now for Pulp Theatre's production of M. Butterfly! Purchase tickets online now to take advantage of our discounted rates! Inspired by real life events, David Henry Hwang's Tony Award-winning play M. Butterfly tells the spellbinding story of an illicit, long-standing love affair between a French diplomat and a beautiful Chinese opera performer who harbors more than one explosive secret. Director Mae Hoffman, a senior Theatre major at Wofford, leads the student-run Pulp Theatre team as they bring to life Hwang's unforgettable meditation on gender politics, sexuality, race, and power. The show runs from Jan. 25-27, at 8 p.m. each night, in the Sallenger Sisters Black Box Theatre in the Rosalind Sallenger Richardson Center for the Arts. Special rates apply for tickets purchased online at www.wofford.edu/boxoffice, or via the Wofford Theatre Facebook page: student tickets are $3 online and $5 at the door, and all other tickets are $8 online and $10 at the door.

Details: Freedom Riders is the powerful, harrowing and ultimately inspirational story of the six months in 1961 that changed America forever. From May until November 1961, more than 400 black and white Americans risked their lives?and many endured savage beatings and imprisonment?for simply traveling together on buses and trains as they journeyed through the Deep South. Deliberately violating Jim Crow laws in order to test and challenge a segregated interstate travel system, the Freedom Riders met with bitter racism and mob violence along the way, sorely testing their belief in nonviolent activism (pbs.org). Subject: MESSAGE FROM ATHLETICS: Retirement reception for Coach Mike Ayers

Date: January 22, 2018 at 9:08 AM

To: Wofford Staff and Faculty WoffordStaff@Wofford.Edu, Wofford Students WoffordStudents@Wofford.Edu

To: Wofford Campus Community

From: Richard Johnson, Director of Athletics

Head football Coach Mike Ayers is retiring after more than 30 years of service to Wofford. For three decades, Ayers guided the Terriers from the NAIA and NCAA Division II ranks to Division I and the Southern Conference. Along the way, the team made appearances in the Division II Playoffs in 1990 and 1991, the Division I FCS Playoffs in 2003, 2007, 2008, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2016 and 2017, and claimed Southern Conference titles in 2003, 2007, 2010, 2012 and 2017. Ayers is the longest-serving head coach of any sport in college history.

Please join us from 4 to 6 p.m. Monday, Jan. 29, in the Harley Room in the Richardson Physical Activities Building to celebrate Mike's many contributions to Wofford.

Subject: REMINDER FROM ATHLETICS: Retirement reception for Mike Ayers TODAY, 4-6 p.m.

Date: January 29, 2018 at 1:28 PM

To: Wofford Staff and Faculty WoffordStaff@Wofford.Edu, Wofford Students WoffordStudents@Wofford.Edu

---

To: Wofford Campus Community
From: Richard Johnson, Director of Athletics

Please join us TODAY (Monday, Jan. 29) from 4 to 6 p.m. as we celebrate former head football coach Mike Ayers' retirement. The reception will be held in the Harley Room in the Richardson Physical Activities Building.

We also invite you to tonight's basketball game, when we will recognize Mike's accomplishments at halftime. Men's basketball hosts Western Carolina at 7 p.m.

Mike Ayers' retirement comes after more than 30 years of service to Wofford. For three decades, Mike guided the Terriers from the NAIA and NCAA Division II ranks to Division I and the Southern Conference. Along the way, the team made appearances in the Division II Playoffs in 1990 and 1991, the Division I FCS Playoffs in 2003, 2007, 2008, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2016 and 2017, and claimed Southern Conference titles in 2003, 2007, 2010, 2012 and 2017. He is the longest-serving head coach of any sport in college history.

BannerWeb & Banner Temporarily Unavailable

Details: It is time for some maintenance! On Thursday, Feb. 1, at 6 p.m., Information Technology Services (ITS) will temporarily disable access to the Banner Student Information System. This includes BannerWeb. During this time ITS, will perform server maintenance necessary for our next Banner upgrade. While myWofford, Moodle, and email will be available, those aspects associated with grades and registration will not. Entering an area undergoing maintenance will present an error message. This is to be expected. Access will be restored by Friday, Feb. 2, at 6 a.m. Apologies for any inconvenience.
