Beene nets first as Terrier in loss to Spartans October 3, 2006

GREENSBORO, N.C. -- Wofford sophomore Phil Beene, a first-year transfer from South Carolina, scored his first goal in a Terrier uniform but it was not enough as UNC Greensboro used two second half goals to claim a 3-1 victory over Wofford Tuesday evening at UNCG Soccer Stadium in Greensboro, N.C.

Beene netted his first tally at 30:39 on a shot to the upper left corner over goalkeeper Chad Janda's head from 35 yards out after receiving a pass from classmate Will Mabry. His goal tied the contest at 1-1.

The Spartans had gained the early advantage when Matt Mulvena sent a cross from the left side to a feet-first sliding Michael FitzGerald near the six-yard box just 13 seconds into the match after controlling possession on the opening kickoff.

In the second half, UNCG (8-4-1, 3-0-1 SoCon) received a pair of goals from Mike Richardson to clinch the triumph. Richardson posted his first goal of the game at 61:14 following a weaving run along the left flank and scoring from 10 yards out. Henning Jonasson and Travis Young were credited with assists.

Richardson's second mark on the scoreboard came just over five minutes later, at 66:37, as he sent a rocket towards the Wofford (2-9-1, 0-3 SoCon) cage, only to hit the hands of keeper Russ Sandifer before finding the back of the net.

The Terriers rode the strong goalkeeping of Sandifer, who collected a career-high 13 saves, including several one-on-one chances. His previous career best effort was 10 saves at Lipscomb Sept. 12, 2004.

Sandifer, who did not play last season because he was traveling the world as Wofford's 21st Presidential International Scholar, stopped All-American Randi Patterson on at least two occasions.

A 6 p.m. Friday tilt against Davidson at Snyder Field is next on the docket for the Terriers. Of Wofford's five remaining regular-season contests, four will be played at home, including the next three.

Scoring Summary:

00:13 -- UNCG, Michael FitzGerald (Matt Mulena)
30:39 -- WOF, Phil Beene (Will Mabry)
61:14 -- UNCG, Mike Richardson (Travis Young, Henning Jonasson)
66:37 -- UNCG, Mike Richardson (unassisted)

Stats Summary:

Shots -- UNC Greensboro 21, Wofford 10
Corner Kicks -- UNC Greensboro 4, Wofford 2
Saves -- Wofford 13 (Sandifer 13), UNC Greensboro 5 (Janda 3, Team 2)

Wofford loses one-goal contest to Davidson in physical battle October 6, 2006

SPARTANBURG, S.C. -- A score just before halftime by visiting Davidson held up as the only mark on the scoreboard as the Wildcats prevailed, 1-0, in a physical battle against Wofford Friday evening in Southern Conference men's soccer action at Snyder Field in Spartanburg, S.C.

As the clock was winding down near intermission, Davidson's (5-9, 1-4 SoCon) David Sartorio, standing behind the midfield stripe, sent a long serve to the streaking Ryan Adeleye 25 yards from the goal mouth. Adeleye was able to take the pass in stride as he dribbled past a pair of Terrier defenders to set up a one-on-one encounter with Wofford (2-10-1, 0-4 SoCon) goalkeeper Russ Sandifer. Adeleye let the ball fly just as he stepped inside the 18-yard box and the shot found the back of the net past Sandifer for the game's only tally at 43:57.

The Terriers had chances in the second half to equalize the score, including a shot just wide by senior Brandon Lowery just over minutes into the stanza. Sophomore Will Mabry had intercepted a Wildcat backline pass and fed it to Lowery, who turned and fired but missed the wide-open goal from 20 yards out.

Both teams battled hard throughout the entire contest with the total foul count equaling 46 and six cards being issued, including two red citations. A player for each school received a red.

Wofford maintained possession and control of the flow of the game throughout the first 15 minutes before Davidson countered the rest of the match and finished with a 21-9 shot advantage.

The Wildcats' Robby Goldsberry recorded two saves in the shutout, while Sandifer stopped eight Davidson attempts in his second-straight start.

The Terriers will welcome Georgia Southern to Snyder Field for their next contest, a 4 p.m. Tuesday match.

Wofford men's soccer drops league game to Georgia Southern October 10, 2006

SPARTANBURG, S.C. -- The Wofford men's soccer team surrendered a goal in each half in losing 2-0 to visiting Georgia Southern Tuesday afternoon at Snyder Field in Spartanburg, S.C.

The Eagles struck first early in the first stanza as Jason Tindall one-timed a crossing pass from Jon Cox past Terrier goalkeeper Russ Sandifer from 25 yards out at 5:03.

Wofford (2-11-1, 0-5 SoCon) nearly tied the match when a loose ball in the six-yard box was gathered by Nick Schuermann, only to deflect wide off the left post.

After the intermission and the score still 1-0 GSU, the Terriers had another chance to score as Reed Blair's header went just high 46 seconds into the half.

Georgia Southern added the insurance tally at 57:30 when Ben Reine fired a rocket from 40 yards out into the upper left corner as Sandifer was battling the setting sun in his eyes.

Cox and Danny Hall each had four shots for the Eagles, as they outshot the Terriers, 23-11. GSU keeper Adam Webb collected six saves for the shutout, while Sandifer stopped nine Georgia Southern (7-3-3, 3-1-2 SoCon) attempts.

The Terriers will next play at 6 p.m. Saturday when they host Furman at Snyder Field. The contest will be the third-straight home game for Wofford.

Furman claims victory over Wofford men's soccer October 14, 2006

SPARTANBURG, S.C. -- Two goals in each half and an aggressive offensive attack were enough as visiting Furman scored a 4-0 victory at Snyder Field against Wofford in men's soccer action Saturday night in Spartanburg, S.C.

The Paladins took control of possession after the Terriers showed a quick strike three and a half minutes into the game. Senior Brandon Lowery just missed giving Wofford (2-12-1, 0-6 SoCon) the early 1-0 lead when he nearly scored to the near post on a cross from the left side by classmate Joel Kozak.

Furman then responded by scoring its first tally at 16:58 when Mark Futrell, dribbling near the end line, sent a ball back to Chris Davis who was standing inside the six-yard box. Davis redirected the pass past Terrier goalkeeper Russ Sandifer.

Later in the first half, the Paladins struck again, as Shea Salinas sent a long pass to Davis down the left flank. Davis then passed the ball across through the Wofford defense to Rob Victor, who then headed the ball off the ground and over the head of Sandifer at 23:23.

The Terriers seemed to come out more aggressively early in the second half, but Furman (8-5-1, 3-1-1 SoCon) did not back down from the challenge. The best Wofford scoring chance in the second half came at 81:10 when Callum Easter sent a direct kick off the head of Kyle Walker, only to be saved point-blank by backup Paladin keeper Derek Gleason.

Furman added its two second half scores late. Takato Ban sent a long serve on the right side to Robert Hunter, who raced past the Terrier defense and made one move to get around a charging Sandifer before finding the back of the net at 86:45.

Hunter later added his second mark on the scoreboard, at 88:39, when Kevin Traynor crossed the ball and it deflected off Hunter's leg just under the crossbar. The ball hit the underside of the crossbar and fell straight down just inside the goal line.

The visitors held a 25-6 shot advantage and an 11-0 edge on corner kicks. Sandifer stopped 10 Furman shots, while the Paladins' starting keeper Bryan Amos registered two saves before being relieved for the final 9:31 by Gleason.

Wofford will close its road and Southern Conference regular-season slate with a 4 p.m. Wednesday match at Elon.

Furman 4, Wofford 0

Scoring Summary:

16:58 -- FUR, Chris Davis (Mark Futrell)
23:23 -- FUR, Rob Victor (Shea Salinas, Chris Davis)

Wofford men's soccer drops final SoCon match to Elon October 18, 2006

ELON, N.C. -- The Wofford men's soccer team fell, 3-0, Wednesday evening at Elon in the final Southern Conference match of the 2006 season for both teams.

The host Phoenix scored twice in the first half, including the first tally at 11:55. Nick Aparicio sent a corner kick towards the Wofford (2-13-1, 0-7 SoCon) goal, which found Aaron Parker, for the game's first score.

Elon (9-7-2, 3-3-1 SoCon) later tacked on its second goal, at 31:19, when Kiki Willis gathered a mishandled ball by starting goalkeeper Russ Sandifer inside the box and placed it in the back of the net. Justin Wyatt was credited with the assist.

Following halftime, the Phoenix scored late in the second stanza for the final margin. Willis was on the passing end of the third score as he assisted Daniel Street for his first goal of the campaign at 87:42 following a two-on-two situation.

Elon held a 17-2 shot advantage throughout the match and an 8-2 edge on corner kicks. Elon goalkeeper Taylor Saxe did not record a save in the shutout, while Sandifer stopped three Phoenix shots before he was lifted at halftime for freshman Thomas Hunter III. Hunter III collected five saves in the final 45 minutes of play.

Senior Brandon Lowery and junior Kyle Walker registered the lone shots for the Terriers.

Wofford will conclude its regular-season action at 6 p.m. Friday when it hosts non-conference foe Liberty at Snyder Field. Prior to the game, the program will recognize Lowery, Sandifer and Joel Kozak as part of Senior Night festivities.

Terriers head to Greensboro for opening-round match October 23, 2006

SPARTANBURG, S.C. -- The Wofford men's soccer team will head to Greensboro, N.C., Saturday to face Southern Conference regular-season champion UNC Greensboro in opening round play of the 2006 SoCon Tournament.

The Terriers, who completed their regular season with a non-conference meeting with Liberty last Friday, enter the tournament field as the No. 8 seed. The Spartans captured the No. 1 seed by defeating Furman in Greenville, S.C., also last Friday.

The two teams met earlier this season at UNCG Soccer Stadium with UNC Greensboro claiming a 3-1 victory October 3. Wofford entered the locker room tied 1-1 before a pair of Spartan goals in the second half provided the final margin.

The league tournament begins play Saturday with three games. The final opening-round contest will be held Sunday. All four opening-round matches are held at campus sites and are awarded to the top-four seeds. The semifinals and championship are slated for Nov. 3 and 5 at Eugene E. Stone III Stadium in Greenville, S.C., on the Furman campus.

2006 Southern Conference Tournament opening-round matchups:

Saturday, Oct. 28:

No. 7 Davidson at No. 2 Georgia Southern, 3 p.m.

No. 6 Elon at No. 3 Furman, 6 p.m.

No. 8 Wofford at No. 1 UNC Greensboro, 7 p.m.

Sunday, Oct. 29:

No. 5 Appalachian State at No. 4 College of Charleston, 3:30 p.m.

Patterson's two goals lift UNCG past Wofford October 28, 2006

GREENSBORO, N.C. -- Two goals by two-time All-American Randi Patterson gave Southern Conference regular-season champion and top-seed UNC Greensboro a 2-0 victory Saturday night against No. 8 seed Wofford in opening round men's soccer action at UNCG Soccer Stadium in Greensboro, N.C. The Spartans advance to the semifinal round Nov. 3 at Furman with the win to face either No. 4 College of Charleston or No. 5 Appalachian State, while the Terriers conclude their campaign with the loss.

Patterson tallied his first score from 15 yards out on a one-on-one situation with Wofford goalkeeper Thomas Hunter III at 2:32 off a long pass along the right side from D.J. McCurry.

The pair connected again following the intermission at 51:06 to give UNC Greensboro (12-7-1) the final margin. McCurry sent a cross from the right side to Patterson, who then used his chest to knock down the pass before placing it in the back of the net.

The Terriers had one last chance to add a mark on the scoreboard when a Kyle Walker header sailed high over the crossbar with under a minute remaining.

Wofford (2-15-1) managed seven shots in the contest compared to 13 by the Spartans. Joel Kozak and Brandon Lowery had two and one shots, respectively, in playing their final collegiate game as Terriers. Fellow senior Russ Sandifer did not see action in goal as Hunter III played the entire match registering seven saves.

UNCG's Nate Berry collected three saves in goal for the shutout. Patterson and teammate Thomas Campbell led all players with three shots apiece.

Wofford men's soccer tabs seven to join 2007 roster February 15, 2007

Seven new faces, including six freshmen and a transfer, are set to join the Wofford men's soccer team for the 2007 season. The members of the class hail from as far away as Louisiana, while also featuring a quartet from North Carolina, a homegrown South Carolina product and a Tennessee native.

"We are extremely excited about the incoming class for the fall of 2007," noted head coach Matt Kern, who will be entering his sixth season on the Terrier sideline this fall. "The quality of the group from top to bottom could be as talented as any incoming class we have ever had at Wofford. (Assistant coach) Rafe Mauran and I feel like we have addressed some needs up front with some potential goal scorers in Alexander Drummond, Wilson Hood and Kentrel Owens. Andrew Epplesheimer and Logan Threadgill are very good link players and will make us stronger in through the midfield. Randy McLeod and Carter Blanche give us several options in the back.

"We look forward to their arrival on campus as we begin preparations for the fall season."

Wofford men's soccer announces 2007 schedule May 15, 2007

SPARTANBURG, S.C. -- The Wofford men's soccer team and head coach Matt Kern have announced their schedule for the 2007 season. The slate, set to begin in late August, is highlighted by the Terriers participating in three tournaments, including the return of the Wofford/adidas Invitational.

"The group is really looking forward to the 2007 fall season," noted Kern. "We are excited about playing in three tournaments, and having 10 regular season home matches."

Entering play in the Wofford/adidas Invitational, slated for Sept. 14 and 16 at Snyder Field, as first-time opponents are Big South Conference foe UNC Asheville and Northeast Conference member Robert Morris. The match against Robert Morris will be the first meeting between the Terriers and Colonials, while Furman will round out the field.

High Point will kick off Wofford's home slate when it comes to Spartanburg Sept. 9. Other home non-conference foes include VMI (Oct. 17), Lipscomb (Nov. 2), Belmont (Nov. 4) and Birmingham-Southern (Nov. 7).

Lipscomb and Belmont, along with the Terriers and Furman, will compete in the first South Carolina/Tennessee Challenge the opening weekend of November.

Wofford's away slate includes a meeting with South Carolina Sept. 11 in Columbia, S.C., and competition in the UCF Tournament Sept. 21 and 23 against Stetson and host UCF in Orlando, Fla.

The annual Southern Conference Tournament will begin Nov. 10 with opening-round matches at campus sites before heading to Greensboro, N.C., Nov. 16 and 18 for the semifinals and championship.
