The Writing Center Is Open
Details: The Writing Center is open for the remainder of the spring semester, INCLUDING EXAM WEEK, and we hope you'll take advantage of our resources. Of course we're going to have to work online, but it shouldn't be difficult. As before, we're willing to help you with any kind of paper, at any stage of the writing process. Even if you're struggling to get started, let us know and we'll help. The process will be as follows: send a note to me, Dr. Trakas, at trakasadp@wofford.edu. Tell me what kind of assignment you're working on, and whether or not you can use any of the face-to-face apps, such as FaceTime, Zoom, or Skype. I'll forward your note to one of my tutors, and they will contact you. They'll ask you to send them your paper by email, and, if possible, they'll arrange a face-to-face online meeting during which the two of you can discuss the paper. If you can't use the apps I've mentioned, you can send the paper and receive a written response. Give us a try.

Dear Wofford Faculty and Staff,

Wofford faculty and staff are devoted to creating a welcoming and inclusive college community in which everyone can pursue their academic and professional ambitions. Wofford recognizes that an environment free from harassment and discrimination are vital components of a high quality education and a strong community. We are committed to respecting the well-being and human dignity of everyone in our community and will protect those who voice concerns about the conduct of any administrator, faculty member, staff member, vendor or student.

The college has made great strides in promoting programs, pedagogies and events to make the campus community aware of issues related to discrimination and harassment, and we will continue these efforts to create a positive environment for everyone.

In furtherance of those efforts and in compliance with federal law, the president’s cabinet has approved a plan to educate all employees about the duty to report knowledge of sexual and gender-based misconduct and how to prevent harassment and discrimination.

Attached is a document explaining the reporting requirements of “responsible employees,” which are all employees except those designated by the college as confidential (employees in the Wellness Center and the Rev. Dr. Ron Robinson, the college’s chaplain). Please fill out the programming request form if you would like to schedule a training with a Title IX team member to learn more about your reporting obligations.

In addition, you will receive an email on Wednesday, May 6, from “Wofford College,” automated-message@everfi.net, with information about how to log in and complete the required online training. If you do not see the email in your inbox, please check your spam folder or copy the Everfi email address into your email search bar. If you have completed the training within the past year, you will not be required to complete it at this time and will not receive the email.

Additional information about Title IX, Wofford’s policy and other resources can be found at www.wofford.edu/titleix.

Understanding Your Role as a Responsible Employee

Who is a Responsible Employee?
A “Responsible Employee” is an employee of the college who has an obligation to report to the Title IX Coordinator any complaints or allegations of sexual or gender-based misconduct of which the employee becomes aware. Confidential resources are not Responsible Employees, but all other Wofford employees are Responsible Employees and are required to share all available information related to sexual and gender-based misconduct with the Title IX Coordinator.

What am I required to report?
As a Responsible Employee, you must report information related to any of the following prohibited conduct:
- Sexual Assault
- Sexual Harassment
- Gender-based Harassment
- Sexual Exploitation
- Dating/Domestic Violence
- Stalking
- Retaliation

How do I submit a report?
A written report should be submitted as soon as is practicable, but within 24 hours of learning about the incident, by using the Responsible Employee Reporting Form on myWofford.

Questions regarding reporting should be referred to Amanda Estabrook, Title IX Coordinator:
Campus Life Building
Office: 864/597-4047
Email: estabrookar@wofford.edu

What do I include in a report?
Your report should include ALL KNOWN DETAILS of the incident and should answer the following questions as fully as possible:
- When and where did the incident occur?
- When/where/how did you learn of it?
- What is the name of the person who reported to you? How can they be contacted?
- What information was shared with you?
- Has the reporting individual shared the information with any other campus officials?

Your job is not to investigate the incident. You should not ask additional questions to try to provide a complete report, and you should not attempt to corroborate the report.

If you, a reporting party or any other member of the community is in immediate danger or in need of medical attention, contact Wofford College Campus Safety at 864/597-4911. Contact local emergency services for off-campus emergencies by dialing 911.
Understanding Your Role as a Responsible Employee

Why is my role as a Responsible Employee Important?

Wofford College believes that all members of the college community and visitors have the right to be free from all forms of sexual and gender-based misconduct. All members of the campus community are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that does not infringe upon the rights of others. The college prohibits sexual and gender-based misconduct and strongly encourages prompt reporting of all types of prohibited conduct. The college is committed to fostering a community that promotes timely and fair resolution of sexual and gender-based misconduct cases. As a Responsible Employee, you have a role in ensuring that our community is safe and welcoming.

What is covered by Title IX?

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex or gender in educational programs that receive federal financial assistance. All manners of sexual discrimination and harassment are covered, including sexual assault, dating violence, stalking and other forms of sexual misconduct or violence.

- ALL community members
  - Including faculty, staff, students and visitors

- ALL college programs
  - Including athletics, residence life, study abroad, events, etc.

- In any location
  - Regardless of whether it occurs on or off campus

How can I support someone who reports to me?

- Thank the individual for trusting you and for sharing the information.
- Tell the individual that you are a Responsible Employee and are required to share all information with the Title IX Coordinator.
- Ask the individual if they feel safe. If not, call Campus Safety for assistance in taking immediate steps.
- Ask the individual if they need medical assistance. Campus Safety can arrange transport to the hospital.
- Ask the individual if they would like to speak with someone confidentially: counselors and medical professionals in the Wellness Center (for students), Chaplain (all community members).
- Tell the individual that support services are available through the Title IX Office, even without going through campus processes.
- Keep the information private. Do not share the information with other faculty, staff or students. Report to the appropriate individuals, and be assured that appropriate steps will be taken.

Support and Resources

Individuals who meet with the Title IX Coordinator will be provided the following information and resources:

- Options and procedures for making a complaint on campus and through law enforcement
- Confidential resources/support services: campus and community, academic and work accommodations
- Protective measures: no contact orders, schedule changes, housing relocation, etc.

If you are ever unsure of whether an incident must be reported, you should contact the Title IX Office. Additional information, resources and Wofford’s Sexual and Gender-based Misconduct Policy can be found at wwwwoffordedu/titlex.

I hope this message finds all of you well. Thank you again for your efforts to continue the work of the college through the uncertainty of COVID-19.

As of today, we have 505 students who have paid deposits and are planning to join our community in the fall. We could not be more excited! This good news gives us even more reason to prepare for the fall semester back on campus. To that end, we have convened two working committees.

The first is a Working Group for a Return to Campus. The group will look at best practices and recommend health and safety guidelines so we will be prepared for the return of students and a full team of faculty, staff and coaches. The group is discussing masks, class schedules and spaces, events of all types, schedules, summer camps, staffing, housing and much more and will share their recommendations by early June. Serving on that group are: Dan Deeter (chair, business office), Tim Schmitz (academic affairs), Martin Aigner (ITS), Mark Line (athletics), Brian Lemere (residence life), Beth Wallace (wellness), Cherie Tyger (AVI), Dudley Brown (OMC), Mary Carmen-Jordan (admission), Lisa De Freitas (advancement) and Chee Lee (human resources). I sincerely appreciate their wisdom and service!

The second is an Alternative Calendar Committee. This group will consider various options for altering the campus calendar if that becomes necessary. Again, the goal is to return to campus in the fall, and I extend a heartfelt thanks to this group for reviewing scenarios and plans that will allow us to do that.

As we hope to resume some semblance of normal activity in the coming months, summer session II and the fall, I want to assure everyone that all of our decisions will have the safety, health and well-being of everyone in our campus community as a foremost consideration.

To answer questions about the work of these committees as well as to answer questions about enrollment and the college’s fiscal health, we will hold a Virtual Town Hall event for faculty and staff on Thursday, May 7, at 4 p.m. To submit questions in advance (these will be answered before responding to live questions), email WoffordNews@wofford.edu. Please REGISTER to attend the event. Once you register, you will receive a link to join.

Again, thank you for your commitment to our college. Stay well!
This message contains the corrected link to register for the town hall on May 7.

LSAT Bootcamp
Details: The E. K. Hardin Pre-Law Program is excited to announce the 2020 LSAT Boot Camp at Wofford College. This is a great opportunity to get ready for the LSAT at a fraction of the cost of other prep programs. Taught by Professor Jeremy Henkel from the Department of Philosophy, the program has helped many students successfully prepare for the exam. This year, the LSAT Boot Camp will take place between Sunday, August 23 and Thursday, August 27. Students taking the LSAT Boot Camp will be able to move on to campus the week before the fall semester begins. The cost of the program is $350 (if received by May 30; $400 for late registration). If you would like to participate, please send a check made out to Wofford College to David Alvis, Wofford College, 429 N Church Spartanburg, SC by May 30th. For any questions or inquiries, please contact Dr. Alvis at alvisjd@wofford.edu.

The Writing Center Is Open
Details: The Writing Center is open for the remainder of the spring semester, INCLUDING EXAM WEEK, and we hope you'll take advantage of our resources. Of course we're going to have to work online, but it shouldn't be difficult. As before, we're willing to help you with any kind of paper, at any stage of the writing process. Even if you're struggling to get started, let us know and we'll help. The process will be as follows: send a note to me, Dr. Trakas, at trakasdp@wofford.edu. Tell me what kind of assignment you're working on, and whether or not you can use any of the face-to-face apps, such as FaceTime, Zoom, or Skype. I'll forward your note to one of my tutors, and they will contact you. They'll ask you to send them your paper by email, and, if possible, they'll arrange a face-to-face online meeting during which the two of you can discuss the paper. If you can't use the apps I've mentioned, you can send the paper and receive a written response. Give us a try.

LSAT Boot Camp
Details: The E. K. Hardin Pre-Law Program is excited to announce the 2020 LSAT Boot Camp at Wofford College. This is great opportunity to get ready for the LSAT at a fraction of the cost of other prep programs. Taught by Professor Jeremy Henkel from the Department of Philosophy, the program has helped many students successfully prepare for the exam. This year, the LSAT Boot Camp will take place between Sunday, August 23 and Thursday, August 27. Students taking the LSAT Boot Camp will be able to move on to campus the week before the fall semester begins. The cost of the program is $350 (if received by May 30; [$400 for late registration]). If you would like to participate, please send a check made out to Wofford College to David Alvis, Wofford College, 429 N Church Spartanburg, SC by May 30. For any questions or inquiries, please contact Dr. Alvis at alvisjd@wofford.edu.

Dear Colleagues,

I trust you are well. The campus remains unnaturally quiet, and I look forward to all of us being back together safely soon.

I write to you today to share the results of the Working Group for a Return to Campus. Their efforts were conscientious and wise, and we appreciate their commitment to our well-being as well the well-being of our college. Since our priority is the return of students for the fall term, we will continue to operate remotely for Summer School II, and there will be no residential academic or athletics camps. The Carolina Panthers are still considering whether or not they will come to campus in July. Limiting on-campus activities through the summer will give us the opportunity to bring staff back slowly and in a way that will create levels of comfort, confidence and acclimation.

Let me assure you that we understand that the addition and rotation of staff will be a gradual process, determined by vice presidents and their managers. Flexibility and accommodation should still govern our practices in this regard as we move toward full staffing before students return in August.

Return to Work Guidelines

In consultation with guidelines from the American Campus Health Association and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, the Working Group for a Return to Campus has developed standards to ensure the health and safety of all Wofford College employees as we return to work. This plan is determined by data and will be implemented beginning on June 1 with an eye on declining COVID-19 cases and percentages in South Carolina as well as projections for the future as reported by the S.C. Department of Health and Environmental Control.

The following minimum standards adopted by the president’s cabinet represent best practices including recommendations of the working group commissioned by President Nayef Samhat and comprised of representatives from across campus.

Returning to work should happen in organized phases for the first four weeks (beginning on June 1). Offices should limit staffing so that initially only 30 to 50% of employees are working at the same time in the same space. Some offices may require even smaller numbers based upon social distancing. Area vice presidents and managers should determine an appropriate schedule and staffing structure that helps employees feel increasingly secure while building office functionality over time. All employees are required to complete a return to work form that will be sent out by Human Resources later today, prior to returning to work. Employees who are at highest risk, have extenuating family needs or are fully able to complete work remotely may talk with their supervisors or human resources about continued remote work.

Social Distancing should be maintained at a minimum of 6 ft. In an office environment, that means a separation of desks in non-private offices and limiting... environment, that means a separation of desks in non-private offices and limiting usage of common work areas. Meetings unable to adhere to this standard should go online.

Cloth facemasks will be required and provided. These masks need not be worn at desks or in private offices. Facemasks should be worn in interactions with the public and in groups and always when social distancing is not possible. We recommend wearing them when you are walking across campus as well. For the proper way to wear masks, visit the CDC site.

Hygiene should become a priority. Employees should follow CDC guidelines for handwashing and the use of hand sanitizer when soap and water are unavailable.

Facilities staff will clean and disinfect areas using CDC-recommended materials on a daily basis. Individual offices may choose to take responsibility for conducting more frequent cleaning of high-touch spaces following CDC standards.

Visitors should be limited in the initial phase of return to work.

COVID-19 virus continues to evolve, and our policies and plans will be updated as appropriate and as more information becomes available.

Again, thank you for your commitment to Wofford College during this almost incomprehensible time. We will make it through this together.

Stay well!

Nayef
Memorandum

To: Wofford Students, Faculty and Staff
From: Mike Sosulski, provost
Re: Dean of Sandor Teszler Library
Date: May 15, 2020

Wofford College has named Lisa Roberts dean of the Sandor Teszler Library. She is currently the director of the Marshall Brooks Library at Principia College in Elsah, Illinois, a role she has held since 2011.

“The Sandor Teszler Library is an essential partner in the academic success of Wofford’s students and faculty, and we look forward to having Lisa’s leadership as the library positions itself as an academic commons to facilitate learning and collaboration,” said Mike Sosulski, Wofford’s provost. “Lisa’s strong commitment to student success, her distinguished record of leadership and her vision of the transformative power an academic commons can play in the life of a liberal arts college make her an excellent fit for Wofford College.”

Roberts earned a master of library and information science degree at the University of Texas at Austin. She earned a bachelor of arts in economics, religion and philosophy at Principia College. She’s a member of the American Library Association (ALA) and the Association of College and Research Libraries (ACRL).

“Wofford’s core values align beautifully with my personal values,” Roberts said. “I’m excited by the vision outlined in the strategic plan and the central role the library will play during this time of growth and innovation. I’m excited to join a strong team within the library and look forward to collaborating with faculty, staff and administration to develop programming in support of student learning.”

During her time at Principia, she built a comprehensive across-the-curriculum information literacy instruction program and was involved with revising the college’s general education curriculum and the development of the First Year Experience Program. She also served on committees responsible for the reaffirmation of accreditation and a new model for academic program review and the assessment of student learning.

Some of the conferences at which Roberts has presented include the Consortium of Academic and Research Libraries in Illinois; the Teaching for Active and Engaged Learning Lilly Conference in Anaheim, California; and the Higher Learning Commission Annual Conference in Chicago, Illinois.

Sandor Teszler Library is experiencing major transition and growth, as it receives a building renovation and joins a statewide-shared library service platform in the summer of 2020.
Dear Friends and Colleagues,

This is a follow-up to President Samhat’s message regarding Wofford’s plan to return employees to campus in phases beginning on June 1.

Below are descriptions of two confidential forms and links to those forms on the Wofford website. Please complete these forms before returning to work on or before June 1, 2020.

MANDATORY Return to Work Form – Safety is a priority for our students, faculty and staff. This form is required of all staff and faculty returning to campus, regardless of date of return. Please use this link to the MANDATORY RETURN TO WORK FORM. This should be completed within the next two weeks OR minimally before your physical return to the Wofford campus.

VOLUNTARY Self-Certification Form – In efforts to maintain a safe environment for all students, faculty and staff, this VOLUNTARY SELF-CERTIFICATION FORM is your opportunity to provide additional information so Human Resources can evaluate the health and safety measures that may be specific to you, your area (including your workspace) and your department. Participation is voluntary but highly encouraged.

As a reminder, both forms are confidential. Should you have questions regarding these forms, please reach out to the Office of Human Resources (HumanResources@wofford.edu).

Thank you,

Chee Lee
Director of Human Resources
Please note that the Mandatory Return to Work Form and the Voluntary Self-Certification Form links are down. We are working to repair the issues now. You will receive another email with new links as soon as they are live again. Thank you for your patience.
THE UPDATED FORMS ARE NOW LIVE. THANK YOU FOR YOUR PATIENCE.
