Teach.Equity.Now Workshop 2: History and Lessons for Today

Date/Time: 2021-11-05 02:00 PM

Location: Zoom

Cost: Free

Details: This workshop series is designed to ground participants in a shared language, a shared framework, and a shared history to inform strong racial equity practice. Every two-and-a-half-hour-long workshop includes reflection and application - how does this learning apply to me and to us and how am I and how are we going to apply what we're learning? The second workshop looks at how our history brought us to this moment as well as what we can learn from that history in the form of racial equity principles to guide strong anti-racist practice. If you already registered for Workshop 1, you do not need to re-register.

In the Name of Lithium: film screening & debate

Date/Time: 2021-11-09 06:00 PM

Location: Olin Building 101

Cost: Free

Details: Please join us in the screening of "In the Name of Lithium" (Argentina, 2021) followed by a debate between director Tian Cartier and panelists Dr. Laura Barbas Rhoden, Dr. Cissy Fowler, Dr. Esther Godfrey and Dr. Julie Sexeny from Wofford and USC Upstate. The documentary features the present struggle of Argentine indigenous communities to preserve their salars, one of the biggest lithium reserves of the world. As the efforts to reduce climate change focus in energy transition through lithium batteries, the film presents the worldview of the indigenous communities and their actions to defend their territory and to prevent them from becoming a sacrificial zone for mining companies. Film run-time: 1:20 hours In Spanish with English subtitles.

Memorandum

To: Wofford Students; Wofford Staff and Faculty
From: Jo Ann Brasington, Vice President of Marketing and Communications
Date: November 2, 2021
Re: Social media policy for college-affiliated accounts

The college recently updated its social media policy for campus departments, offices and organizations. This policy provides continuity, supports brand management, offers security benefits and eliminates dormant and abandoned accounts.

FOR MANAGERS OF EXISTING ACCOUNTS: Click REGISTER EXISTING to register your current account. For more information, review the Campus Social Media Policy.

FOR DEPARTMENTS AND ORGANIZATIONS PLANNING TO DEVELOP A SOCIAL MEDIA PRESENCE: Review the New Account Creation and Management guidelines, then click REQUEST NEW ACCOUNT to make it official.

The Office of Marketing and Communications is happy to consult with current and new social media managers to discuss goals, strategy, branding and more. Begin the process at marketing@wofford.edu.

Teach.Equity.Now Workshop 2: History and Lessons for Today

Date/Time: 2021-11-05 02:00 PM

Location: Zoom

Cost: Free

Details: This workshop series is designed to ground participants in a shared language, a shared framework, and a shared history to inform strong racial equity practice. Every two-and-a-half-hour-long workshop includes reflection and application - how does this learning apply to me and to us and how am I and how are we going to apply what we're learning? The second workshop looks at how our history brought us to this moment as well as what we can learn from that history in the form of racial equity principles to guide strong anti-racist practice.

Twilight Bowl: A play by Rebecca Gilman

Date/Time: 2021-11-05 08:00 PM

Location: Jerome Johnson Richardson Theatre.

Cost: $5.00

Details: Nov. 4 - 6 and 10 - 13, 8 p.m. Six young women. One small town. Different lanes. After graduating from a small Wisconsin high school, Sam heads to college on scholarship - but her cousin Jaycee's future isn't looking as bright. As the friends face adulthood, their local bowling alley becomes a place to celebrate triumphs, confront challenges and forge new identities. In a stirring portrayal of a cross-section of rural America, a very real group of young women struggle with the pressure to "make something" of themselves while navigating their own and one another's evolutions.

Details: Presence and Protest is a lecture by artist, educator, and curator Justin Randolph Thompson that draws upon On Being Present, a two-year research project dedicated to representations of Black Africans in the paintings and drawings of the collection of the Gallerie degli Uffizi and Palazzo Pitti, curated by Thompson for the Hypervisions online platform. The talk reflects upon institutional positionality and the fragility of facades designed to overlook a presence hidden in plain sight. What does it mean for the recognition of something as simple as presence in the visual archive to be capable of unsettling canons developed and upheld for centuries? What does it say to us about the role of institutions in caring for a more complete narration of their collections? In September of 2020 Thompson and the initiative that he co-founded and currently directs, Black History Month Florence, opened a Black cultural center in the heart of Florence called The Recovery Plan. This lecture grapples with what it means to recover from the abuse of these culturally induced oversights, while recovering fragments of history that are far from lost, they are simply in need of maintenance and care. From: Randy Hall, Director of Campus Safety

Re: Nov. 12 Safety Drill

Campus Safety will lead a lockdown drill Friday, Nov. 12 on campus. It will be announced using the Rave Guardian mass notification system, which will send text messages to cell phones registered with the college. The system will also be used to conclude the drill by sending messages announcing, “all clear, resume normal activity.”

The drill will begin at 1:10 p.m. It will last no longer than 10 minutes to minimize disruption to instructional time.

The drill will give the campus community an opportunity to familiarize itself with ways to be protected against a threat, such as an armed intruder. Campus Safety leads active shooter training classes each semester. Classes are scheduled for Nov. 5 and Nov. 10 this semester in preparation for the Nov. 12 drill. Details can be found in the Daily Announcements.

Campus Safety invites everyone to review the “Wofford Active Shooter Plan” and other instructional videos.

Please register your phone with Rave Guardian by visiting getrave.com and searching for Wofford College. Follow the instructions to add your phone number. This will ensure that you receive alert texts as well as alerts through email.

Please also consider downloading the Rave Guardian app. It is free to download from the App Store and Google Play. The app includes a mobile panic button, virtual escort device, chat feature for reporting information to Campus Safety, a library of emergency plans and a list of important phone numbers.

If you have any questions about the resources or drill, please call Randy Hall at Ext. 4351.

Re: First-Generation College Celebration Week Nov. 8-11

The Office of Student Success is thrilled to host programming for the 4th annual First-Generation College Celebration from Nov. 8-11. While we desire to have as much student involvement as possible, participation from faculty and staff is always welcomed. Please feel free to attend any of the events listed below. If you plan to attend the dinner on Tuesday, Nov. 9, please let me know by 5 p.m. on Monday.

First-Gen Celebration Day: Monday, Nov. 8 – First Floor Mungo Student Center – 11 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

This day is celebrated nationally each year on Nov. 8 so stop to celebrate and pick up giveaways.

First-Gen Dinner & Mingle: Tuesday, Nov. 9 – Harley Room in Richardson Athletic Center – 6 p.m.

Come out for food and fellowship with other first-gen students, faculty and staff.

First-Gen Student Leadership Panel: Thursday, Nov. 11 – Olin 101 Theater – 6 p.m.

This event will highlight some of Wofford's first-gen student leaders as they discuss the parallels of their identities and leadership roles.

Upcoming Events

Presence and Protest: Representations of Black Africans in the Paintings of the Uffizi Museum

Date/Time: 2021-11-09 11:00 AM

Location: Zoom

Cost: Free

Details: Presence and Protest is a lecture by artist, educator, and curator Justin Randolph Thompson that draws upon "On Being Present," a two-year research project dedicated to representations of Black Africans in the paintings and drawings of the collection of the Gallerie degli Uffizi and Palazzo Pitti, curated by Thompson for the Hypervisions online platform. The talk reflects upon institutional positionality and the fragility of facades designed to overlook a presence hidden in plain sight. What does it mean for the recognition of something as simple as presence in the visual archive to be capable of unsettling canons developed and upheld for centuries? What does it say to us about the role of institutions in caring for a more complete narration of their collections? In September of 2020 Thompson and the initiative that he co-founded and currently directs, Black History Month Florence, opened a Black cultural center in the heart of Florence called The Recovery Plan. This lecture grapples with what it means to recover from the abuse of these culturally induced oversights, while recovering fragments of history that are far from lost, they are simply in need of maintenance and care. In the Name of Lithium: film screening & debate

Date/Time: 2021-11-09 06:00 PM

Location: Olin Building 101

Cost: Free

Details: Please join us in the screening of "In the Name of Lithium" (Argentina, 2021) followed by a debate between director Tian Cartier and panelists Dr. Laura Barbas Rhoden, Dr. Cissy Fowler, Dr. Esther Godfrey and Dr. Julie Sexeny from Wofford and USC Upstate. The documentary features the present struggle of Argentine indigenous communities to preserve their salars, one of the biggest lithium reserves of the world. As the efforts to reduce climate change focus in energy transition through lithium batteries, the film presents the worldview of the indigenous communities and their actions to defend their territory and to prevent them from becoming a sacrificial zone for mining companies. Film run-time: 1:20 hours In Spanish with English subtitles.

Study Abroad in Copenhagen, Denmark this May!

Details: Copenhagen, Denmark has been labeled a green, smart city with sights set on being carbon neutral by 2025. This 10-day travel/study course will take students to Denmark to explore the ways communities in and around Copenhagen achieve sustainable outcomes. Enrolled students will meet periodically throughout the spring semester to prepare academically and logistically for travel to Denmark (departure on May 23). Once on-site, activities will include a mixture of classroom lectures/discussions and experiential field studies throughout the city, which will revolve around sustainable transportation, urban planning, energy conservation, and sustainable food production. Pre-requisites for the course include concurrent enrollment in ENVS 160 for Spring 2022, or successful completion of ENVS 151 or ENVS 160 in a previous semester. Students who have not traveled abroad previously are especially encouraged to apply. For more information, visit the program website below. The application due date is Tuesday, Nov. 9.

Funding for Study Abroad: Boren Scholarship Internal Deadline December 15

Details: Boren Scholarships, an initiative of the National Security Education Program, provide unique funding opportunities for U.S. undergraduate students to study less commonly taught languages in world regions critical to U.S. interests, and underrepresented in study abroad, including Africa, Asia, Central and Eastern Europe, Eurasia, Latin America, and the Middle East. Western Europe, Canada, Australia, and New Zealand are excluded. Boren Scholars represent a vital pool of highly motivated individuals who wish to work in the federal national security arena. In exchange for funding, Boren Scholars commit to working in the federal government for at least one year after graduation. Students interested in applying for this competitive scholarship should contact Dean Amy Lancaster as soon as possible. The on-campus deadline for 2022-23 Boren applications is Dec. 15, but interested students should begin the process sooner to allow for appropriate advising. For more information, please see <http://www.borenawards.org> and <https://www.borenawards.org/webinars>.

New Wofford College Bookstore in 2022

The Wofford College Bookstore will soon have a new home in a shopping plaza that will include restaurants, retail and gathering spaces.

The college participated in a groundbreaking ceremony Wednesday, Nov. 10, for The Hub, a 16,699-square-foot shopping center that will be located at 578 N. Church St.

“The Hub is an exciting development that will complement revitalization efforts for the city’s Northside and Wofford’s continued integration across Church Street into the Northside community,” said Dr. Tim Schmitz, Wofford’s interim provost, who has overseen a 2015 grant from the Romill Foundation for the Milliken Sustainability Initiative to support the college’s involvement in the neighborhood.

The Hub is expected to be complete by summer 2022.

The college’s bookstore will relocate from 501 N. Church St. to The Hub. The bookstore will have 5,758 square-feet of flexible space for the display and sale of merchandise and books with the capacity to serve as the site of college and community events. The college also will share outdoor space for gatherings with others in the plaza.

Moe’s Original BBQ will occupy a 3,271 square-foot space in the plaza. More restaurants, retail and commercial users are being recruited for the shopping center.

Subject: Crime Alert: Vehicle Theft

Date: November 10, 2021 at 5:21 PM

To: Wofford Students WoffordStudents@Wofford.Edu, Wofford Staff and Faculty WoffordStaff@Wofford.Edu

Crime Alert

Crime Alerts are issued to make segments of the campus community aware of situations that present a potential threat to the safety and well-being of community members.

Wofford College takes all reports seriously, and we encourage people who experience or witness a crime to report it.

Reported Offense

A student's car was stolen between Nov. 7 and Nov. 9 from the Shipp Parking Lot. The car's key was left in the vehicle.

If you saw anything suspicious, please notify Campus Safety at 864-507-4350 or the Spartanburg Police Department at 864-596-2222.

Safety Tips

Campus Safety reminds everyone to lock and remove keys when vehicles are parked. All valuables should be removed from sight.

Wofford Theatre presents Twilight Bowl

Date/Time: 2021-11-11 08:00 PM

Location: Jerome Johnson Richardson Theatre

Cost: $5

Details: Nov. 10- 13, 8 p.m. Six young women. One small town. Different lanes. After graduating from a small Wisconsin high school, Sam heads to college on scholarship - but her cousin Jaycee's future isn't looking as bright. As the friends face adulthood, their local bowling alley becomes a place to celebrate triumphs, confront challenges and forge new identities. In a stirring portrayal of a cross-section of rural America, a very real group of young women struggle with the pressure to "make something" of themselves while navigating their own and one another's evolutions.

From: Randy Hall, Director of Campus Safety

Date: November 11, 2021

Re: Church Street closure

The campus community should be aware that Church Street will be closed today from Memorial Drive to Marion Avenue in South Spartanburg beginning at 3:45 p.m. for the city's Veterans Day parade. Portions of the street could close as early as 3:30 p.m.

The parade will begin at 4 p.m. The street will not completely reopen until the parade passes.

The Spartanburg Police Department is asking the community to find alternate routes when using Church Street.

Memorandum

To: Wofford Students; Wofford Staff and Faculty

From: Randy Hall, Director of Campus Safety

Date: November 11, 2021

Re: Reminder: Nov. 12 Safety Drill

Campus Safety will lead a lockdown drill Friday, Nov. 12 on campus. It will be announced using the Rave Guardian mass notification system, which will send text messages to cell phones registered with the college. The system will also be used to conclude the drill by sending messages announcing, “all clear, resume normal activity.”

The drill will begin at 1:10 p.m. It will last no longer than 10 minutes to minimize disruption to instructional time.

The drill will give the campus community an opportunity to familiarize itself with ways to be protected against a threat, such as an armed intruder.

Campus Safety invites everyone to review the “Wofford Active Shooter Plan” and other instructional videos.

Please register your phone with Rave Guardian by visiting getrave.com and searching for Wofford College. Follow the instructions to add your phone number. This will ensure that you receive alert texts as well as alerts through email.

Please also consider downloading the Rave Guardian app. It is free to download from the App Store and Google Play. The app includes a mobile panic button, virtual escort device, chat feature for reporting information to Campus Safety, a library of emergency plans and a list of important phone numbers.

If you have any questions about the resources or drill, please call Randy Hall at Ext. 4351.

From: Wofford News WoffordNews@Wofford.Edu
Subject: Ad hoc committee on history, memory and commemoration
Date: November 12, 2021 at 1:06 PM
To: stonerp@wofford.edu

Dear Phillip,

When the Board of Trustees adopted the recommendations of the Justice, Equity, Diversity and Inclusion task force, it did so with the intent of forming an ad hoc committee to examine in greater detail the college's history and the names of all buildings that are named honorifically (without donor funding).

The Committee on History, Memory and Commemoration has now been formed and is tasked with considering the JEDI report's first, fourth and fifth recommendations with the purpose of:

1. Developing a plan and timeline for presenting the college's history more fully and inclusively across multiple platforms.
2. Reviewing the college's policies and practices for the honorific naming of buildings spaces on campus.

I extend my sincere thanks to the following individuals who have agreed to serve on this incredibly important ad hoc committee of the Wofford College Board of Trustees.

The Hon. Costa Pleicones '65, trustee and co-chair

Stanley Porter '89, trustee and co-chair

Ronnie Andrews '81, trustee

Shawan Gillians '04, trustee

Rev. Will Malambri '98, trustee

Greg O'Dell '92, trustee

Dr. Dwain Pruitt '95, chief equity officer

Dr. Tracy Revels, faculty

Rev. Dr. Ron Robinson '78, chaplain

Rev. Dr. Tom Robinson '78, Chaplain

Dr. Phillip Stone '94, archivist

Josh Whitley '05, trustee

Rev. Lisa Yebuah '99, trustee

Margaret Young '92, trustee

Once accomplished, the committee will present the plan to share the college's history and propose an expanded policy for the future naming of buildings and spaces. This work should be completed by the closing of the 2021-22 academic year.

Thank you for your interest and engagement in this process. I appreciate your patience and support.

Sincerely,

Christopher A. P. Carpenter '90

Funding for Study Abroad: Boren Scholarship Internal Deadline Dec. 15

Details: Boren Scholarships, an initiative of the National Security Education Program, provide unique funding opportunities for U.S. undergraduate students to study less commonly taught languages in world regions critical to U.S. interests, and underrepresented in study abroad, including Africa, Asia, Central and Eastern Europe, Eurasia, Latin America, and the Middle East. Western Europe, Canada, Australia, and New Zealand are excluded. Boren Scholars represent a vital pool of highly motivated individuals who wish to work in the federal national security arena. In exchange for funding, Boren Scholars commit to working in the federal government for at least one year after graduation. Students interested in applying for this competitive scholarship should contact Dean Amy Lancaster as soon as possible. The on-campus deadline for 2022-23 Boren applications is Dec. 15 but interested students should begin the process sooner to allow for appropriate advising. Dancer Auditions for Summer 2022 Workshop

Date/Time: 2021-12-02 07:30 PM

Location: RSRCA: Jerome Johnson Richardson Theatre.

Cost: Free

Details: Seeking a diverse cast of dancers for Interconnected: The Tangle. This is a developmental workshop of a dance theatre piece about mental health being directed/choreographed by NYC-based theatre artist and Broadway performer, Robin Levine. Styles vary throughout the piece but are currently focused on athletically driven contemporary/modern work. Looking for artists who are quick to learn technical choreography, are reliable, and create a fun energy in the room. This workshop will take place over a limited period during summer 2022, dates TBD. Opportunities for housing and stipend may be available. Audition: Please come dressed to dance in clothes that won't restrict your movement and wear either bare feet or a soft soled dance shoe. It is highly encouraged that students attend the artist talk starting at 6 p.m.

Dancer Auditions for Summer 2022 Workshop

Date/Time: 2021-12-02 07:30 PM

Location: RSRCA: Jerome Johnson Richardson Theatre.

Cost: Free

Details: Seeking a diverse cast of dancers for Interconnected: The Tangle. This is a developmental workshop of a dance theatre piece about mental health being directed/choreographed by NYC-based theatre artist and Broadway performer, Robin Levine. Styles vary throughout the piece but are currently focused on athletically driven contemporary/modern work. Looking for artists who are quick to learn technical choreography, are reliable, and create a fun energy in the room. This workshop will take place over a limited period during summer 2022, dates TBD. Opportunities for housing and stipend may be available. Audition: Please come dressed to dance in clothes that won't restrict your movement and wear either bare feet or a soft soled dance shoe. It is highly encouraged that students attend the artist talk starting at 6 p.m.

Subject: Thank you from President Samhat
Date: November 22, 2021 at 3:00 PM
To: Wofford Staff and Faculty WoffordStaff@Wofford.Edu

With Thanksgiving a couple of days away, I'd like to thank all of you for your commitment to student success, academic excellence and our community's health and wellbeing.

We have gathered — Family Weekend and Homecoming were remarkable. We have learned from each other — from classes and labs to the Southern Conference Undergraduate Research Forum. And we have celebrated — the dedication of the Mungo Student Center and the college's rise to No. 7 in the country among liberal arts colleges for the percentage of students who study abroad for academic credit.

Your engagement and dedication are the keys to our college's success, and I am grateful for your commitment. Please consider noon on Tuesday, Nov. 23 the start of the Thanksgiving holidays.

In appreciation,

Nayef H. Samhat

Funding for Study Abroad: Boren Scholarship Internal Deadline Dec. 15

Details: Boren Scholarships, an initiative of the National Security Education Program, provide unique funding opportunities for U.S. undergraduate students to study less commonly taught languages in world regions critical to U.S. interests, and underrepresented in study abroad, including Africa, Asia, Central and Eastern Europe, Eurasia, Latin America, and the Middle East. Western Europe, Canada, Australia, and New Zealand are excluded. Boren Scholars represent a vital pool of highly motivated individuals who wish to work in the federal national security arena. In exchange for funding, Boren Scholars commit to working in the federal government for at least one year after graduation. Students interested in applying for this competitive scholarship should contact Dean Amy Lancaster as soon as possible. The on-campus deadline for 2022-23 Boren applications is Dec. 15 but interested students should begin the process sooner to allow for appropriate advising.
