Please join me in welcoming Dr. Sandra Rouse as Wofford’s new vice president for campus life and student development and dean of students. She begins July 18.

Dr. Rouse joins the Wofford community following eight years at Newberry College, the past six as dean of students and a member of the president’s leadership team. She has had responsibility for residence life, judicial affairs, security, wellness, counseling services, student engagement, sorority and fraternity life, the first-year experience, campus recreation, leadership programs and postal services. Her experience in the field started in 1998 as director of residence life. She also has supervisory experience as assistant director of the student advising and recruitment center, director of freshman year and retention programs, and associate dean of students. In addition to Newberry, her experience includes positions at the University of North Carolina Greensboro, Salem College and Voorhees University. From 2011-14 she served as the director of education and research for the National Association for Campus Activities.

She is active in professional organizations, including the National Association of Student Personnel Administrators, the South Carolina College Personnel Association, the National Association for Campus Activities and the National Resource Center for the First-Year Experience. She has National Incident Management Systems certification and is a peer evaluator for the Southern Association of Colleges & Schools Commission on Colleges. She has presented her scholarship in the field at conferences and in a variety of publications.

Dr. Rouse holds a Ph.D. in higher education administration from the University of North Carolina Greensboro, an M.Ed. in student personnel services with a counseling emphasis from the University of South Carolina, and a bachelor’s degree in psychology with a second major in dance from Columbia College.

A native of Barnwell, SC, Dr. Rouse has had extensive training in dance and has taught and choreographed works throughout the Carolinas. She has served on the board of the Orangeburg Civic Ballet. She serves as a judge for Miss South Carolina preliminaries and state high school scholarship pageants. In addition, she has volunteered for the Women’s Shelter of Columbia, South Carolina, and enjoys writing historical fiction and exploring arts and crafts. Dr. Rouse is married to Todd Berry.

Dr. Rouse is ideally suited to lead the college’s committed Campus Life and Student Development team, and I look forward to the work they will do to support our students.
and our community of learners.

Please join me in welcoming Dr. Rouse and thanking the search committee: Brand Stille (chair), Jennifer Allison, Jameica Hill, Julie Leighty (ex-officio), Mark Line, Will Malambri, Ashley Manigault, Ron Robinson and Jack Stomberger.

RE: Human Resources leadership

The college’s interim director of human resources, Julie Leighty, will be leaving the college June 15. She has worked hard during her tenure, and we wish her the best. Cynthia Connor, who joined us in the spring as a human resource specialist, will manage human resources in the short term while the college identifies a new director. Thank you for your patience during the transition.
Students, faculty and staff,

The Marsh Hall Parking Lot, which is located across from the Wellness Center, is closed to the campus community. Only construction vehicles will be allowed in the lot until further notice.

Thanks,

Ricky Shehan
