A Chicana Eco-Genealogy: Searching for My Environmental Foremothers (virtual talk)

Date/Time: 2023-03-02 07:00 PM
Location: Zoom
Cost: Free
Details: Dr. Priscilla Ybarra, Associate Professor of Literature, U of North Texas, will trace the history of little-known Mexican American and Chicana ecological knowledge caretakers. Brief profiles will include ecologist Ynés Mexía (1870-1938) and poet Francisca Vallejo McGettigan (1875-1962). Narrating her immigrant Mexican mother Maria Higinia Solis Ybarra’s (1938-) story alongside the lives of these earlier ecological knowledge caretakers contextualizes Dr. Ybarra’s search for a Chicana eco-genealogy as a scholar, professor, and writer.

A Chicana Eco-Genealogy: Searching for My Environmental Foremothers (virtual talk)

Date/Time: 2023-03-02 07:00 PM
Location: Zoom
Cost: Free
Details: Dr. Priscilla Ybarra, Associate Professor of Literature, U of North Texas, will trace the history of little-known Mexican American and Chicana ecological knowledge caretakers. Brief profiles will include ecologist Ynés Mexía (1870-1938) and poet Francisca Vallejo McGettigan (1875-1962). Narrating her immigrant Mexican mother Maria Higinia Solis Ybarra’s (1938-) story alongside the lives of these earlier ecological knowledge caretakers contextualizes Dr. Ybarra’s search for a Chicana eco-genealogy as a scholar, professor, and writer.

Wine Reception and Talk :"The Virtues of Leadership"

Date/Time: 2023-02-09 05:00 PM
Location: Rosalind Sallenger Richardson Center for the Arts
Details: Join us this Thursday for a glass of wine (or lemonade) with President Samhat and Dr. Marjorie Hass and stay for a lecture on the Virtues of Leadership. Dr. Hass, a philosopher by training, is the President of the Council of Independent Colleges (CIC). She will speak on "The Virtues of Leadership: Courage, Compassion and Grace." Effective leadership requires a strong character and the willingness to develop and display a variety of what philosophers call "virtues," and psychologists call "dispositions." Dr. Hass explores these three key leadership traits, disentangling them from their often-gendered backstories, and offers practical advice for growing as a leader and a supporter of diverse leadership styles. The reception will be held from 5-6 p.m. in the lobby of the Rosalind Sallenger Richardson Center for the Arts, followed by the talk at 6 p.m. in the Jerome Johnson Richardson Theatre.

A Chicana Eco-Genealogy: Searching for My Environmental Foremothers (virtual talk)

Date/Time: 2023-03-02 07:00 PM
Location: Zoom
Cost: Free
Details: Dr. Priscilla Ybarra, Associate Professor of Literature, U of North Texas, will trace the history of little-known Mexican American and Chicana ecological knowledge caretakers. Brief profiles will include ecologist Ynés Mexía (1870-1938) and poet Francisca Vallejo McGettigan (1875-1962). Narrating her immigrant Mexican mother Maria Higinia Solis Ybarra’s (1938-) story alongside the lives of these earlier ecological knowledge caretakers contextualizes Dr. Ybarra’s search for a Chicana eco-genealogy as a scholar, professor, and writer.

Seeking Seghers: The Case of a Lost Art Collection and its Afterlives by Dr. Robert Mayhew

Date/Time: 2023-03-14 06:00 PM
Location: Leonard Auditorium, Main Building
Details: In this discussion, Dr. Robert Mayhew will tell the story of a curious collection of paintings once housed in the Church of Carolus Borromeus in Antwerp, a fabulously Baroque church built at the height of the Counter-Reformation. The paintings are a unique example of artistic collaborations in the seventeenth century and provide an illuminating case study in the intersection of economics, art, and cultural history.

Materiality and the Divine: Baroque art across Europe

Details: This exhibition, including works from Wofford's collection along with loans from the Bob Jones University Museum and Gallery, explores the dynamic and revolutionary art of the Baroque era in Europe. The deeply moving art of this period, C. 1600-1750, with its dynamic and monumental compositions, deep color, realistic detail, and dramatic light, reflects seismic changes happening across Europe during a time of religious upheaval and global exploitation. This exhibit is free and open to the public.

Intersecting Methods: 2020 Portfolio

Details: As a process for creating art, printmaking has many similarities to the scientific method. Printmakers dream up the imagery, experiment with their mediums, proof their plates, manipulate the variables (one at a time) and proof again to be able to create the desired results in the final edition. Intersecting Methods is a portfolio that brings together the arts and the science to create collaborative prints by partnering a printmaker with a collaborator. This exhibit is in the Martha Cloud Chapman Gallery in the Sandor Teszler Library, Feb. 8-May 21.

Wine Reception and Talk: "The Virtues of Leadership"

Date/Time: 2023-02-09 05:00 PM
Location: Rosalind Sallenger Richardson Center for the Arts
Details: Join us this Thursday for a glass of wine (or lemonade) with President Samhat and Dr. Marjorie Hass and stay for a lecture on the Virtues of Leadership. Dr. Hass, a philosopher by training, is the President of the Council of Independent Colleges (CIC). She will speak on "The Virtues of Leadership: Courage, Compassion and Grace." Effective leadership requires a strong character and the willingness to develop and display a variety of what philosophers call "virtues," and psychologists call "dispositions." Dr. Hass explores these three key leadership traits, disentangling them from their often-gendered backstories, and offers practical advice for growing as a leader and a supporter of diverse leadership styles. The reception will be held from 5-6 p.m. in the lobby of the Rosalind Sallenger Richardson Center for the Arts, followed by the talk at 6 p.m. in the Jerome Johnson Richardson Theatre.

Wine Reception and Talk: "The Virtues of Leadership"

Date/Time: 2023-02-09 05:00 PM
Location: Rosalind Sallenger Richardson Center for the Arts
Cost:
Details: Join us this Thursday for a glass of wine (or lemonade) with President Samhat and Dr. Marjorie Hass and stay for a lecture on the Virtues of Leadership. Dr. Hass, a philosopher by training, is the president of the Council of Independent Colleges (CIC). She will speak on "The Virtues of Leadership: Courage, Compassion and Grace." Effective leadership requires a strong character and the willingness to develop and display a variety of what philosophers call "virtues," and psychologists call "dispositions." Dr. Hass explores these three key leadership traits, disentangling them from their often-gendered backstories, and offers practical advice for growing as a leader and a supporter of diverse leadership styles. The reception will be held from 5-6 p.m. in the lobby of the Rosalind Sallenger Richardson Center for the Arts, followed by the talk at 6 p.m. in the Jerome Johnson Richardson Theatre.

Materiality and the Divine: Baroque art across Europe

Details: This exhibition, including works from Wofford's collection along with loans from the Bob Jones University Museum and Gallery, explores the dynamic and revolutionary art of the Baroque era in Europe. The deeply moving art of this period, C. 1600-1750, with its dynamic and monumental compositions, deep color, realistic detail, and dramatic light, reflects seismic changes happening across Europe during religious upheaval and global exploitation. This exhibit is free and open to the public. Located in the Lower Level Richardson Family Art Museum.

A Chicana Eco-Genealogy: Searching for My Environmental Foremothers (virtual talk)

Date/Time: 2023-03-02 07:00 PM
Location: Zoom
Details: Dr. Priscilla Ybarra, associate professor of literature at the University of North Texas, will trace the history of little-known Mexican American and Chicana ecological knowledge caretakers. Brief profiles will include ecologist Ynés Mexía (1870-1938) and poet Francisca Vallejo McGettigan (1875-1962). Narrating her immigrant Mexican mother Maria Higinia Solis Ybarra's (1938-) story alongside the lives of these earlier ecological knowledge caretakers contextualizes Dr. Ybarra's search for a Chicana eco-genealogy as a scholar, professor, and writer.

Seeking Seghers: The Case of a Lost Art Collection and its Afterlives by Dr. Robert Mayhew

Date/Time: 2023-03-14 06:00 PM
Location: Leonard Auditorium, Main Building
Details: In this discussion, Dr. Robert Mayhew will tell the story of a curious collection of paintings once housed in the Church of Carolus Borromeus in Antwerp, a fabulously Baroque church built at the height of the Counter-Reformation. The paintings are a unique example of artistic collaborations in the seventeenth century and provide an illuminating case study in the intersection of economics, art, and cultural history.

Date/Time: 2023-03-14 06:00 PM
Location: Leonard Auditorium, Main Building
Details: In this discussion, Dr. Robert Mayhew will tell the story of a curious collection of paintings once housed in the Church of Carolus Borromeus in Antwerp, a fabulously Baroque church built at the height of the Counter-Reformation. The paintings are a unique example of artistic collaborations in the seventeenth century and provide an illuminating case study in the intersection of economics, art, and cultural history.

Materiality and the Divine: Baroque art across Europe

Details: This exhibition, including works from Wofford’s collection along with loans from the Bob Jones University Museum and Gallery, explores the dynamic and revolutionary art of the Baroque era in Europe. The deeply moving art of this period, C. 1600-1750, with its dynamic and monumental compositions, deep color, realistic detail, and dramatic light, reflects seismic changes happening across Europe during religious upheaval and global exploitation. This exhibit is free and open to the public. Located in the Lower Level Richardson Family Art Museum.

Intersecting Methods: 2020 Portfolio

Details: As a process for creating art, printmaking has many similarities to the scientific method. Printmakers dream up the imagery, experiment with their mediums, proof their plates, manipulate the variables (one at a time) and proof again to be able to create the desired results in the final edition. Intersecting Methods is a portfolio that brings together the arts and the science to create collaborative prints by partnering a printmaker with a collaborator. This exhibit is in the Martha Cloud Chapman Gallery in the Sandor Teszler Library, Feb. 8-May 21.

A Chicana Eco-Genealogy: Searching for My Environmental Foremothers (virtual talk)

Date/Time: 2023-03-02 07:00 PM
Location: Zoom
Details: Dr. Priscilla Ybarra, associate professor of literature at the University of North Texas, will trace the history of little-known Mexican American and Chicana ecological knowledge caretakers. Brief profiles will include ecologist Ynés Mexía (1870-1938) and poet Francisca Vallejo McGettigan (1875-1962). Narrating her immigrant Mexican mother Maria Higinia Solís Ybarra’s (1938-) story alongside the lives of these earlier ecological knowledge caretakers contextualizes Dr. Ybarra’s search for a Chicana eco-genealogy as a scholar, professor, and writer.

A Chicana Eco-Genealogy: Searching for My Environmental Foremothers (virtual talk)

Date/Time: 2023-03-02 07:00 PM
Location: Zoom
Details: Dr. Priscilla Ybarra, associate professor of literature at the University of North Texas, will trace the history of little-known Mexican American and Chicana ecological knowledge caretakers. Brief profiles will include ecologist Ynés Mexía (1870-1938) and poet Francisca Vallejo McGettigan (1875-1962). Narrating her immigrant Mexican mother Maria Higinia Solis Ybarra's (1938-) story alongside the lives of these earlier ecological knowledge caretakers contextualizes Dr. Ybarra's search for a Chicana eco-genealogy as a scholar, professor, and writer.

Seeking Seghers: The Case of a Lost Art Collection and its Afterlives by Dr. Robert Mayhew

Date/Time: 2023-03-14 06:00 PM
Location: Leonard Auditorium, Main Building
Details: In this discussion, Dr. Robert Mayhew will tell the story of a curious collection of paintings once housed in the Church of Carolus Borromeus in Antwerp, a fabulously Baroque church built at the height of the Counter-Reformation. The paintings are a unique example of artistic collaborations in the seventeenth century and provide an illuminating case study in the intersection of economics, art, and cultural history.

Materiality and the Divine: Baroque art across Europe

Details: This exhibition, including works from Wofford's collection along with loans from the Bob Jones University Museum and Gallery, explores the dynamic and revolutionary art of the Baroque era in Europe. The deeply moving art of this period, C. 1600-1750, with its dynamic and monumental compositions, deep color, realistic detail, and dramatic light, reflects seismic changes happening across Europe during religious upheaval and global exploitation. This exhibit is free and open to the public. Located in the Richardson Family Art Museum, lower level.

Intersecting Methods: 2020 Portfolio

Details: As a process for creating art, printmaking has many similarities to the scientific method. Printmakers dream up the imagery, experiment with their mediums, proof their plates, manipulate the variables (one at a time) and proof again to be able to create the desired results in the final edition. Intersecting Methods is a portfolio that brings together the arts and the science to create collaborative prints by partnering a printmaker with a collaborator. This exhibit is in the Martha Cloud Chapman Gallery in the Sandor Teszler Library, Feb. 8-May 21.

Memorandum
To: Wofford Staff and Faculty
From: Information Technology Services
Date: February 21, 2023
Re: Mandatory Security Awareness Training

All Wofford staff and faculty are required to complete security awareness training issued by Information Technology Services. This training is broken into two sessions, and each will take about 30 minutes to complete. Click here to access the training.

This training, which was announced Feb. 1, is different than what many employees completed in December.

Staff and faculty are required to complete assigned trainings by Information Technology Services once a semester. Trainings will be announced in February and October. Learn more about the college’s policy involving security awareness trainings.

A Chicana Eco-Genealogy: Searching for My Environmental Foremothers (virtual talk)

Date/Time: 2023-03-02 07:00 PM
Location: Zoom
Details: Dr. Priscilla Ybarra, associate professor of literature at the University of North Texas, will trace the history of little-known Mexican American and Chicana ecological knowledge caretakers. Brief profiles will include ecologist Ynés Mexía (1870-1938) and poet Francisca Vallejo McGettigan (1875-1962). Narrating her immigrant Mexican mother Maria Higinia Solis Ybarra’s (1938-) story alongside the lives of these earlier ecological knowledge caretakers contextualizes Dr. Ybarra's work for a Chicana eco-genealogy as a scholar, professor and writer.

The Genesis of the Recent Iranian Revolution: Women Life Freedom

Date/Time: 2023-03-23 04:00 PM
Location: Olin Theater
Cost: Free
Details: As we navigate daily through the world news to engage our students in cultural diversity, we come across a women's and human rights revolution that is brewing in Iran. The nation of Iran is ablaze because of the fearless and daring protests that are contributing heavily to a new revolution in Iran. The young men and women that are the same ages of our students are standing up to one of the most anti-democratic governments in the world. We hope to present a program that would be educational and informative to the Wofford College community.

Memorandum
To: Wofford Students; Wofford Staff and Faculty
From: Amanda Gilman, Director of Campus Events
Date: February 27, 2023
Re: New Office of Campus Events

The college’s new Office of Campus Events supports and assists staff and faculty while producing campus-wide events, camps, conferences and ceremonies. It is also responsible for managing events sponsored by the Office of the President.

The office is maintaining a comprehensive online event scheduling and reservation system. This system intends to prevent conflicts and overlapping events, spaces or facilities. Please visit the office’s website to schedule your campus events.

The office also works closely with others across campus, including marketing and communications, catering, campus safety, the physical plant, housekeeping and information technology to streamline processes, oversee promotion, logistics and troubleshoot operational issues related to events.

Students are invited to apply for jobs and internships in the office. Please contact Amanda Gilman at GilmanAF@wofford.edu or 864-597-4011, or Byron Rucker, manager of campus events, at ruckerbk@wofford.edu or 864-597-5315.

The office’s website has more details, including the links for scheduling events, reserving rooms and a checklist for event planning.

The Genesis of the Recent Iranian Revolution: Women Life Freedom

Date/Time: 2023-03-23 04:00 PM
Location: Olin Theater
Cost: Free
Details: As we navigate daily through the world news to engage our students in cultural diversity, we come across a women's and human rights revolution that is brewing in Iran. The nation of Iran is ablaze because of the fearless and daring protests that are contributing heavily to a new revolution in Iran. The young men and women that are the same ages of our students are standing up to one of the most anti-democratic governments in the world. We hope to present a program that would be educational and informative to the Wofford College community.

Materiality and the Divine: Baroque art across Europe

Details: This exhibition, including works from Wofford's collection along with loans from the Bob Jones University Museum and Gallery, explores the dynamic and revolutionary art of the Baroque era in Europe. The deeply moving art of this period, C. 1600-1750, with its dynamic and monumental compositions, deep color, realistic detail, and dramatic light, reflects seismic changes happening across Europe during religious upheaval and global exploitation. This exhibit is free and open to the public. Located in the Richardson Family Art Museum, lower level.

Intersecting Methods: 2020 Portfolio

Details: As a process for creating art, printmaking has many similarities to the scientific method. Printmakers dream up the imagery, experiment with their mediums, proof their plates, manipulate the variables (one at a time) and proof again to be able to create the desired results in the final edition. Intersecting Methods is a portfolio that brings together the arts and the science to create collaborative prints by partnering a printmaker with a collaborator. This exhibit is in the Martha Cloud Chapman Gallery in the Sandor Teszler Library, Feb. 8-May 21.
