Pine Grove United Methodist Church
Master Membership Record

This is the Master Membership Record of Pine Grove United Methodist Church. This work includes the Official Membership Register and Church Records and all retrievable records of previous pastors and members. Names have been alphabetically arranged for easy reference to persons past and present. Parents' names include the mother's maiden name when provided by the historical records. Those who have married will be listed by their married names (when known) in order to maintain the alphabetical arrangement. Care has been taken in this process to keep all the original data. Please be reminded that updating should be done by adding notations rather than changing the original data.

The various annual membership rolls, such as constituent roll, active or inactive rolls, baptisms, deaths, etc., are to be obtained from this Master Membership Record. This can be done by copying the appropriate entry and pasting it into the appropriate document. The following symbols will be applied before each entry to facilitate this process.

Y Full Member Active (FMA) & Affiliate Member (Aff M) -- Preparatory Member (PM)
η Baptism □ Full Member, Inactive (FMI) & Associate Member (AsM)
(Constituent Member (CM) ⚬ Marriage ⚫ Deceased (D)
Ψ Withdrawn (W); Certificate of Transfer (CT); Moved (M); Removed by Quarterly Conference (RQC)

Full Members - baptized or professing members - includes Certificate of transfers and those baptized children who have been confirmed...

Preparatory Members - baptized children or youth who have yet to be confirmed

Affiliate - those who are not members of the UM church they attend, but are members of another UM Church

Associate - those who are not members of the UM Church they attend, but are members of another denomination...

Constituents - those who are not members of any church, but attend regularly...

History of Pine Grove United Methodist Church
(as noted by Mrs. F. B. Moore and updated by Ms Mattie Frank Carraway)

Pine Grove Church, located in the eastern part of Marlboro County, South Carolina, about two miles from the North Carolina line and about three miles from McColl, South Carolina, is a lovely rural church in one of the best farming areas of the state. The church is located on Pine Grove Church Road across from the former Fletcher Memorial School building. Most of the members live within a radius of a few miles from the church.

It is safe to say that Pine Grove has been a place of worship for more than two centuries. Pine Grove Meeting House was built by Quakers on a grant of one hundred acres of land given to Johnathan Marine by Thomas Pinckney, 36th Governor of South Carolina.

Johnathan Marine and John Mendenhall gave the deed to Piney Grove Meeting House to the overseers of the Quaker Meeting House. The tract of land contained four acres and the price paid was four dollars. This lot or tract of four acres being a part of a tract conveyed to Johnathan Marine by his excellency, Thomas Pinckney Governor, dated November 9, 1787. A deed dated 15th day, March 1802, witnessed by Thomas Morris and Francis Thomas is recorded in Marlboro County Clerk of Court’s office in Book P., page 111.

Deed to Pine Grove Church property was signed by H. Mendenhall on 25th day of March, 1833, witnessed by Alex McLeod and William L. Adams, H. Mendenhall of Guilford County, North Carolina overseer of Piney Grove Meeting House, acting under the authority and jurisdiction of the Quaker church or meeting for the State of North Carolina. Deeded to Joshua Fletcher, Charles Manship, William Bundy, Lewis Parker, Cornelius Newton, Thomas Lester, and Willoughby Pate, Trustees for Piney Grove Methodist Episcopal Church, Tract of Land contained four acres - price paid thirty dollars, including land and meeting house. Recorded in Marlboro County Clerk’s office, Book P., page 145.

This meeting house was first used by a fine colony of Friends (Quakers) who lived here before the Revolutionary War. Other denominations, Methodists and Baptists, were allowed to worship in the same structure. After the Revolutionary War ended, the Quakers sold their lands and left in a body for what was called the Northwest Territory. Before they left, Johnathan Marine and John Mendenhall, two of the Quakers, paid four dollars to legalize the passing of four acres of land to the successors of the Piney Grove Meeting House.

For some time after the Quakers left, both the Baptists and the Methodists used the building. Eventually (in 1837) the Baptists moved over to Beaverdam near McColl and left this community to the Methodists. Our list of ministers shows that this church has been used by the Methodists since 1821. This list of ministers was kept by Joshua Fletcher who came to Marlboro County in 1815.

The same building the Quakers had built was used until 1857 when a new building was erected. This was a large white frame rectangular building with many large windows. The sanctuary had two rows of columns, which provided support for the roof. The columns lined the aisles of the church. The church became known for its "amen" corner.

About 1909, W.B. and J.A. Fletcher bought this building and moved it to their farm. A more modern building was built on the same site. This was a wooden structure, consisting of an auditorium and five classrooms. The church was very pretty on the inside. There were three memorial windows and other stained glass windows, which cast a warm glow over the interior. The pulpit furniture and pews were made of walnut with green carpet covering the floors in the sanctuary and ladies=classroom, which connected to the sanctuary by folding doors. Reverend B.G. Murphy was pastor when the church was built. Bishop John B. Kilgo, who began his ministry in Marlboro County on the Bennettsville Circuit, dedicated the church. Later, a two story parsonage was built near the church site.

This building ably filled the needs of this congregation until the 3rd Sunday of January 1942, when it was destroyed by fire. To show the cooperative spirit of this community, only a short time elapsed before a new building was in the process of being built. The architect of this new building was H. D. Harrall of Bennettsville.

Members of the Building Committee:
Chairman - M. W. Adams
Treasurer - Jesse Adams
Secretary - Frank Adams
Pastor - Rev. E.B. Johnson (the pastor did most of the wiring)

An interesting footnote to the construction of the new building is the names of those who built it. All those involved had Biblical names: Builder, David Reese; Assistant Builder, Daniel Jarvis; Plasterer, Enoch Hines; Tile Flooring, Nathaniel Malachi.

The present Pine Grove Building is of Gothic design and is a smaller model to Duke University Chapel. The design of the building matches that of Fletcher Memorial School and the other brick buildings in the area. The church is a brick veneer building consisting of a sanctuary, five classrooms, and a balcony. Pine Grove was one of the first churches in the county to have a divided chancel.

Trees were cut from the farms of the Fletchers, Betheas, McGregor, Mangrums, Adamses, Nortons, and Stantons to create the beautiful beams in the church ceiling. Everyone in the community pitched in to help with the expense of the building.

Since the church was under construction during WWII, finances were tight. There was many a week when no fund were on hand to pay the workmen at the beginning of the week, but by payday, the needed funds had been received. God had truly provided for Pine Grove.

When the church was finished in 1944, it was completely paid for by the time of its dedication on September 4th. Bishop Clare Purcell presided at the dedication services.

The church furnishings were donated by members of the church, including the stained glass memorial windows. The windows are inscribed with the names of former members and ancestors of the present members. Along the right side of the church are windows in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Frank Moore, Mr. and Mrs. John K. Fletcher, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson Adams, and Mr. and Mrs. Welcome Adams Moore. Along the left side of the church windows honor Mr. and Mrs. Joel Nelson Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Raeford Fletcher, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Fletcher, and Mr. and Mrs Archie Patterson Norton. The balcony is named in honor of the Adam=s family. The windows are in memory of Jonathan Adams and his descendants. Every piece of furniture was given as a memorial. Red carpet covers the church. An organ with chimes, as well as a baby grand piano adds to the services held at Pine Grove.

Many distinguished pastors and laypersons have spoken from the pulpit of this church. On September 16, 1973, Pine Grove was honored to have Bishop Edward Tullis as guest minister at the 11AM service. Many visitors were present for this memorable event.

The ladies of the church originally had two organizations - the Sue Fletcher Circle and the Louise Fletcher Circle - both named for outstanding women members of Pine Grove. As time passed, these circles were combined into the Louise Sue Fletcher Circle of the United Methodist Women. This group is active in all aspects of the church=s life.

The grounds of the church, school, community house, and parsonage have always been a community project. The members donate the shrubbery around the church. Longleaf pines and magnolias were planted by members of the Saturday Afternoon Book Club as a living memorial for each church member who passed away.

Pine Grove continues to serve the people of Fletcher Community and Marlboro County to this day. The congregation is small, but faithful in attendance and in giving.

Historical Notes Transcribed from the Blue Official Membership Record Book # 1

(pages 72-74)

Piney Grove Meeting was located in Marlborough County, in Northeastern South Carolina on the order of North Carolina Meetings for Worship [which] appeared in Marlborough County about 1755. The first was Pee Dee, followed by Gum Swamp, Piney Grove, and others. These meetings were under the jurisdiction of Cone Creek Monthly Meeting, North Carolina during the earlier period, but were later transferred to Deep River Monthly Meeting for 9th month, 1801. Deep River sent to New Garden Quarterly Meeting in the 12th month, 1801. Piney Grove Monthly Meeting was opened on the 16th of first month, 1802.

Meetings for worship and preparing meetings, mentioned as reporting to Piney Grove Monthly Meeting, include Piney Grove, Little Creek, Pee Dee, Rocky Fork, and Gum Swamp. The Meeting was laid down the 18th of the 2nd month 1815, and the following minutes entered in the records: When this Meeting being reduced to a very small number, by Friends removing to the State of Ohio, to a situation not capable of holding a Monthly Meeting, to the reputation of truth, . . . Unitedly agrees . . . to discontinue our monthly and preparative meetings and send our records to the Quarterly Meetings.@

By direction of the New Garden Quarterly Meeting, the few members who remained at Piney Grove were transferred to Back Creek Monthly Meeting. Their names are given in Back Creek Minutes under date of 27th of 1st month, 1816, were as follows: Samuel Chance; Armesley Crew; Littledon Digs, and wife, Lydia, and children, Lucy and Caroline; William Digs and wife, Fanny, and children, William Armsley, Margery, Mark, John, Benjamin, Hannah, and Fanny; Isom Hailey, and wife, Elizabeth; Mary Macy and children, Phoebe, William, Abigail, and Henry; Archelus Moreman; John Moreman and wife, Rebecah, and children, Ann, Wilson, Judith, Rebeccah, Julia and John; John Moreman 2nd and wife, Sarah, and children, Hannay, Lampey, Mary, Anna, Ruth, Eliza, Sarah, Benjamin, Celie, and John; Susana Moreman, widow, and children, Jesse, James, Tarleton and wife, Hannah, and children, Nancy, Henry and Thomas, Matthew, Jessie, Rachel, John and Benjamin Pike; Thomas Ratliff and wife, Sarah and children, Thomas, Plooy, and Julianna; Mary Roberts; Achsoch Way; Anna William, Carolina, and Patience Way; William Way, and wife, Abigail, and children, Henry, William, Abigail, Susannah and Moorman.

The records from which the following abstract has been prepared consist of one volume of birth, death, and marriage records, and one volume of minutes, 1801-1815.

(Pine Grove, History of Marlboro County, by Thomas)

It is safe to say that Pine Grove has been a place of worship for more than a century. The Quakers first worshiped there, but, as has been already told, on account of slavery they [Quakers] moved to the North West and the other denominations used their house.

Rev. Cornelius Newton remembered attending a revival meeting held jointly by the Baptists and the Methodists early in the present [20th] century at what is now known as Pine Grove Church. During the progress of the meeting, a young man riding in a gig came up to the Meeting ground, alighted and made his way into the congregation near the altar and paid very respectful attention to the services then in progress. After the close of the services, his acquaintance was sought and it was ascertained that he was a Baptist minister (Rev W.G. Beatty) who has just finished his education and journeyed south to preach the gospel. He was invited to preach at the next service, and he charmed the whole congregation with his graceful speech and melting words, and many were the shouts that were raised as he eloquently portrayed the glories of salvation, and when he would have closed cries of go on arose from the congregation.

It has not been ascertained where the present church or the ones preceding were built. In 1871, and a few years succeeding, a Camp Meeting was held at Pine Grove, the last held in the county, but not perhaps the first held in Pine Grove. A good school has for many years been kept up at Pine Grove. The Academy is just across the road opposite to the church, both being in a beautiful grove of majestic oaks. Under such men as Rober Johnson, J. Monroe Johnson, Hope Newton, Hamilton Craven, and others along with the unanimous hearty support of the patrons, educational as well as religious interests have been maintained.

The church moved first to Pirey Grove, then to Beaverdam in 1837.

History of Pine Grove Church

There is a record that Jonathan Marine and John Mendenhall of S.C., Marlboro District, had four dollars to bargain, sell, release unto their successors of Pine Grove Monthly Meeting a certain parcel of land containing four acres, including the meeting house already built. This was a part of a tract of one hundred acres granted to Jonathan Marine by Thomas Pinckney, Governor of S.C. These four acres were run off November 9, 1787.

Pine Grove was originally a Quaker Church. However, other denominations worshiped there. Many Quakers moved away. Some that remained married outside the church. This was against the rules of the Quaker Church.

We are sure that Pine Grove has been used by the Methodist since 1821. In that year, Joshua Fletcher, father of the late John S., Louis, and Billy Fletcher, who came to Marlboro from N.C. in 1816, began to keep a record, in 1821, of the ministers of Pine Grove. This record was later kept in the home of Edward S. Fletcher, youngest son of John S. and Anna Gibson Fletcher.

This church building was used also by the Baptist until 1837. In that year, the Baptist went to Beaverdam. Now, they have a church in McColl.

The Quaker church building was used until 1910, the members being called Methodist at this time. This was a large building consisting of an auditorium supported by two rows of columns down the two aisles.

In 1910, the congregation decided to build a new church rather than remodel the old one. This was a wooden structure consisting of an auditorium and five classrooms. It was pretty on the inside with three memorial windows. Other windows were of stained glass. The pulpit furniture and pews were of walnut. A green carpet covered the floors. The Rev. B. S. Murphy was pastor when this church was built. It was dedicated by Bishop John C. Kilgo, who began his ministry on the Bennettsville Circuit. This church was burned in the autumn of 1941 during the pastorate of the Rev. E.B. Johnson. A new church was in the process of erection by early spring 1942. This church is a brick veneer building consisting of an auditorium, four classrooms, and a balcony. All the windows, every piece of furniture was given as a memorial. The church was completed and paid for in 1944. In September of that year, it was dedicated by Bishop Clare Purcell.

On September 16, 1973, during the pastorate of the Rev. Marion Caldwell, Pine Grove was honored to have Bishop Edward L. Tullis to preach at the eleven o'clock hour.

Pine Grove originally was a Quaker Church, but other denominations worshiped there. The Quakers moved away and possibly some that remained married outside the church which was against the rules of the Quaker Church.

This Church has been used by the Methodist since 1821 as we have a list of ministers that served the church since that time. This list of ministers was kept by Joshua Fletcher who came to Marlboro County in 1816.

This building was used also by the Baptist until 1837 when they went to Beaverdam. Now, they have a church in McColl.

This Quaker church building was used until 1857 when a new building was erected - this was a large rectangular building - just an auditorium with two rows of columns down the aisles supporting the roof.

In 1910, the congregation decided to build a new church rather than remodel the old one. This was a wooden structure, consisting of an auditorium and five class rooms. It was very pretty on the inside, with three beautiful memorial windows, other windows of stained glass, the pulpit furniture and pews were in walnut and a green carpet covered the floors in the main auditorium and ladies class room which were connected by folding doors. The Rev. B.G. Murphy was pastor when this church was built and was dedicated by Bishop John G. Kilgo who began his ministry on the Bennettsville Circuit.

This church was burned in the fall of 1941 - The Rev E.B. Johnson was pastor. A new church was in process of erection by early spring 1942. This church is a brick veneer building, consisting of an auditorium, four class rooms and a balcony. All the windows in the auditorium are memorial windows, and every piece of furniture was given as a memorial. The church was completed and paid for in 1944, and was dedicated by Bishop Clare Purcell in September of that year.

On September 16, 1973, during the pastorate of the Reverend Marion Caldwell, Pine Grove was honored to have Bishop Edward L. Tullis to preach at the eleven o'clock hour. Visitors from neighboring churches attended.
