The Discipline requires the keeping of this record and specifies that it must be arranged chronologically.

Enter the family name and the Christian name of each member in the columns provided in the order received into full membership. Enter the chronological reference number to the left of the name in the column provided. Record the address in the column provided.

To Whom Married. To be used only when a woman whose name is already on the roll marries. In this column insert the surname of the man to whom she is married. To illustrate: The name of Mrs. Elizabeth Jones appears on the roll; she marries a Mr. Johnson; simply find her name on the roll and write "Johnson" opposite her name in the column "To Whom Married." This obviates the necessity of recording her name in a new place, which would damage the chronological accuracy of the record.

The Discipline requires the keeping of this record and specifies that it must be arranged chronologically.

Enter the family name and the Christian name of each member in the columns provided in the order received into full membership. Enter the chronological reference number to the left of the name in the column provided. Record the address in the column provided.

To Whom Married. To be used only when a woman whose name is already on the roll marries. This column must be used only when a woman whose name is already on the roll marries. To illustrate: The name Mary Elizabeth Jones appears on the record; she marries a Mr. Johnson; simply find her on the roll and write "Johnson" opposite her name in the column "To Whom Married"; indicates the necessity of recording her name in a new place, which would damage the accuracy of the record.

Enter the family name and the Christian name of each member in the columns provided in the order revealed here full membership. Enter the chronological reference numbers to the left of the name in the column provided. Record the address in the column provided.

To Whom Married. To be used only when a woman whose name is already on the roll in this column in the surname of the man to whom she is married. To illustrate: The Mary Elizabeth Jones appears on the record; she marries a Mr. Johnson; simply find her on the roll and write "Johnson" opposite her name in the column "To Whom Married" advises the necessity of recording her name in a new place, which would destroy the logical accuracy of the record.

The purpose requires the keeping of this record and specifies that it must be arranged chronologically.

Enter the family name and the Christian name of each member in the columns provided in the order received into full membership. Enter the chronological reference number to the left of the name in the column provided. Record the address in the column provided.

To Whom Married. To be used only when a woman whose name is already on the roll uses this column to record the surname of the man to whom she is married. To illustrate: If a Mary Elizabeth Jones appears on the record she marries a Mr. Johnson; simply find her on the roll and write "Johnson" opposite her name in the column "To Whom Married" obviating the necessity of recording her name in a new place, which would destroy the logical accuracy of the record.
