WOFFORD COLLEGE

--AND--

Wofford College Fitting School,

SPARTANBURG, S. C.,

1891-1892.
Wofford College is the beneficent bequest to South Carolina Methodists of the Rev. Benjamin Wofford, an itinerant minister of the South Carolina Conference, who generously gave one hundred thousand dollars "for the purpose of establishing and endowing a College for Literary, Classical, and Scientific Education, to be located in his native county, Spartanburg, and to be under the control and management of the Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, of his native State, South Carolina."

The College was chartered by the Legislature of South Carolina, December 16, 1851, and the buildings, consisting of an ample College edifice, a President's house, and four houses for Professors, were completed and transferred to the Board of Trustees, January 1, 1858, the first session having begun August 1, 1854.

Wofford College offers to students in the four college classes two parallel courses of study, each leading to the degree of Bachelor of Arts.

I.—MATHEMATICS AND ASTRONOMY.

Applicants for admission to the Freshman class will be examined on Arithmetic—Fractions, Percentage, and Proportion—and Algebra (Wentworth's) through Quadratic and Irrational Equations. A thorough knowledge of these subjects is essential to the satisfactory pursuit of a course in Mathematics.

FRESHMAN CLASS—Four hours weekly. Wentworth's Geometry.

JUNIOR CLASS—Three hours weekly. Wentworth's Analytical Geometry.

SENIOR CLASS—Two hours weekly. Young's Astronomy.

II.—PHYSICS, CHEMISTRY, AND GEOLOGY.

SOPHOMORE CLASS—Three hours weekly. Gage's Physics.

JUNIOR CLASS—Two hours weekly. Barker's Chemistry.

SENIOR CLASS—Four hours weekly. Le Conte's Elements of Geology; Dana's Manual of Mineralogy and Lithology; Blowpipe Exercises; Landauer's Blowpipe Analysis.
Class in Chemical Analysis—Two hours weekly. Appleton's Qualitative Analysis; Appleton's Quantitative Analysis; Bowman's Practical Chemistry.

During the Sophomore year the elementary principles of Physics are illustrated by easy and simple experiments, and the importance of accuracy in the use of scientific terms and methods emphasized.

The Junior class consumes the first part of the year in the study of Inorganic Chemistry, the text being supplemented by frequent lectures. The latter part of the year is given to work in the Laboratory, in chemical experimentation, and in qualitative and quantitative analysis.

The Senior class devotes two hours per week to Geology and two hours per week to Mineralogy and Lithology. During the year occasional excursions are taken to parts of the country where best can be seen examples of geological formation, and where are to be found a variety of minerals and rocks. Three additional hours per week may be given to laboratory work by those members of the Senior class who desire to pursue the study of Chemistry beyond what is required for graduation.

The blowpipe exercises, after a few month's experience, enable students to determine and classify all the more common minerals and rocks.

An unusually large collection of minerals of this and of foreign countries is accessible to the class in Geology and Mineralogy. At least 1,200 specimens of minerals were the gift of Rev. H. A. C. Walker, of the S. C. Conference, and of Dr. William Dogan, of Union, S. C.

III.—LATIN.

Freshman Class—Four hours weekly. Applicants for admission into this class are required to stand an examination on the second book of Cæsar's Gallic War, or its equivalent, and to translate simple English sentences into Latin. Forms are rapidly reviewed and simple constructions are taught by reading and daily exercises in Latin prose composition.

Text-Books: Sallust; Ovid; Allen & Greenough's Latin Grammar; Exercises.

Sophomore Class—Three hours weekly. A good knowledge of Latin constructions is acquired by the careful study of Latin prose and poetic authors, and by weekly exercises in composition. The Dactylic Hexameter verse is taught.

Text-Books: Livy; Cicero; Virgil; Allen & Greenough's Latin Grammar; Weekly Exercises.

Junior Class—Three hours weekly. Attention is given to the more difficult constructions and some acquaintance with Roman literature is acquired.

Text-Books: Pliny; Cicero; Horace; Exercises; Roman History.

Note.—The Roman method of pronunciation is used.

IV.—METAPHYSICS, MORAL PHILOSOPHY, AND POLITICAL ECONOMY.

Junior Class—Three hours weekly.

Text-Books: Jevons'-Hill's Logic; F. A. Walker's Political Economy; Lectures.

Senior Class—Four hours weekly.

Text-Books: Dewey's Psychology; Robinson's Principles and Practice of Morality; Thorpe's Government of the People of the United States; Valentine's Natural Theology; Butler's Analogy.

In each class a course of Parallel Readings will be prescribed, and Theses on the subjects discussed from time to time required. In this Department one hour a week is given to Bible study in each class. Text-Book is "Steele's Bible Study."

V.—GREEK.

I. Freshman Class—Four hours weekly.—Text-Books: Selections from Xenophon and Herodotus. This class takes a review of the Grammar (Goodwin's), both Etymology and Syntax, looking to the construction of cases and modes. They write weekly exercises in Prose Composition, involving the leading grammatical forms as well as the syntax of simple sentence.

II. Sophomore Class—Three hours weekly. Text-Books: Homer (Books I. and XVIII. of the Iliad and Book I. of the Odyssey); Plato's Apology and Crito, or the Olynthian and Philippic Orations of Demosthenes. In connection with Homer they use Beren's Myths and Legends of Greece and Rome; Greek Prose Composition; compound and complex sentences, involving the modes and tenses of the Oratio Obliqua.

III. Junior Class—Three hours weekly. Text-Books: Euripides; Sophocles; Æschylus; Greek History; Greek Literature; Prose Composition; Greek Metres.

VI.—ENGLISH LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE.

Freshman Class—Three hours weekly. This class undertakes the more difficult constructions by the method of logical analysis of sentences. It makes a careful study of English idioms and begins the study of the historical development of the mother tongue. Here, as in all the English classes, the critical reading of the best English is required and some special branch of English literature emphasized.

Text-Books: Meiklejohn's English Language; Addison's Spectator Papers for daily class-drill in the analysis and construction of sentences.

The course of reading is taken from the easier Nineteenth-Century Writers: Scott, Lamb, Irving, Longfellow, and Dickens. Weekly written exercises and compositions are required.

Sophomore Class—Three hours weekly. In this class is begun a systematic study of the development and growth of the language.

The Eighteenth-Century Literature is studied, and the reading is taken from Goldsmith, Johnson, Swift, Sheridan, Addison, and Burke. In addition to this, Thackeray's Lectures on the English Humorists and Parts Goss's History of the Eighteenth-Century Literature are read.

Written Essays and Compositions are required every two weeks.

Junior Class—Three hours weekly. The historical study of the Language is continued with the Middle English based upon the Prologue and Knight's Tale of Chaucer. This is followed by the study of the Language and Literature of the Elizabethan period. Two plays of Shakespeare, two Books of Milton's Paradise Lost, and some of Bacon's Essays are read in the class. A more advanced study of the qualities and elements of style based upon the best models is undertaken.

Text-Books: Genung's Practical Rhetoric; Saintsbury's History of Elizabethan Literature; Taine's History of English Literature. The course of reading includes several plays of Shakespeare, Bacon's Essays, some of Milton's Prose works, selections from Macaulay, Sidney, Webster, Ruskin. Tri-weekly Essays and Compositions.
Senior Class—Two hours weekly. Advanced and critical studies in style are undertaken, with especial reference to the historical development of English prose. Frequent essays are required, showing independent and critical treatment of literary subjects.

The reading is taken from Carlyle, DeQuincey, Ruskin, Thackeray, George Eliot, Hawthorne, Emerson, Tennyson, Lowell.

1. German.

Freshman Class—Four hours weekly. In this class the forms and elementary principles of the language are studied. Translation of easy selections from German literature will be taken up during the year. Daily Exercises.

Text-Books: Joynes-Meissner's German Grammar; Joynes'-Otto's German Reader.

Sophomore Class—Three hours weekly. In this class proficiency in translation is acquired; the forms and syntax of the language are thoroughly studied. Lectures are given upon the history and Literature of the Language. Weekly Exercises.

Text-Books: Otto's German Grammar; Auerbach's Barfüszele; Schiller's Maria Stuart; Goethe's Faust; Hosner's History of German Literature.

2. French.

Junior Class—Three hours weekly. This year will be given to the study of forms and simpler constructions. Translation will be begun early in the session; the idioms of French and English will be carefully compared. Weekly Exercises.

Text-Books: Otto's French Grammar; Feuillet's Le Roman d'un Jeune Homme Pauvre; Racine's Esther; Saintsbury's Primer of French Literature.

Senior Class.—Two hours weekly. In this year special attention is given to syntax. Translations from French to English will be continued throughout the session; in the latter part of the year French History and Literature is studied. Original compositions in French will be required each week.

Text-Books: Schele de Vere's French Grammar; Auguste Brachet's Historical Grammar of the French Tongue; Laboulaye's Paris en Amerique; Corneille; Racine; Molière.
General Information.

ORGANIZATION OF CLASSES.

Applicants for admission will be assigned to such classes as the Faculty shall after examination determine.

Believing that irregular courses of study are demoralizing to untrained minds, the Faculty urges all matriculates to take one or other of the two Bachelor of Arts (A. B.) courses that the College offers. Recognizing, however, the fact that a few applicants have neither the time nor the fitting for a regular course, the Faculty is willing to grant in exceptional cases the privilege of an election of studies within limits determined by itself, and always with the condition that the time of the students be fully occupied.

TIME OF ENTRANCE.

Attention is invited to this paragraph.

Patrons of the College are earnestly requested to take care that their boys are present on the first day of October, when the entrance examinations are held, the classes organized, and the recitations begun. Those who enter after this time necessarily lose some part of the instruction, and are thus at a disadvantage in comparison with their more punctual classmates. Students that delay their coming for a few weeks usually find themselves hopelessly behind, and are thus forced to drop into lower classes. Let it be especially noted that the middle of the session is not the time for entrance, for, as the classes are then half advanced, it is almost impossible to classify those who at that time apply for admission. So far from gaining time, the whole year is often lost in this way. The Faculty begs that parents, guardians, and students give serious attention to this matter.

EXAMINATIONS.

Written and oral examinations are held, both to test the qualifications of applicants for admission and also to determine, in connection with the current standing of the student, his fitness to pass on to the higher classes. The time and manner of these examinations are left to the judgment of each professor; their length is limited to three hours. The professors determine the conditions of advancement from lower to higher classes in their several departments. A student failing to pass will be required either to take the same class another year or to do such extra work as the professor may deem necessary.

Pupils from our Fitting Schools at Spartanburg or Bamberg, S. C., will be admitted into the Freshman Class without examination upon the certificate of the Head-Master. We would suggest to principals of other High Schools preparing boys for Wofford, the propriety of modeling their course of instruction after that pursued by the Fitting Schools.

REPORTS.

During the session four reports are sent to the parent or guardian, in which is given an approximate estimate of the class-standing and deportment of each student.

The Faculty begs parents to note carefully any failure or falling off in their son's work and appeal to him at once. When it is thought necessary special remarks will be added to the reports.
CATALOGUE OF WOFFORD COLLEGE.

HONORS AND DEGREES.

1. Certificates will be given to irregular students that complete the course of study in any department.

2. The degree of Bachelor of Arts (A.B.) will be conferred upon students that complete either of the following parallel courses of study:

   I. The Departments of Mathematics and Astronomy; Physics, Chemistry, and Geology; English Language and Literature; Latin; Greek; Metaphysics and Political Science.

   II. The Departments of Mathematics and Astronomy; Physics, Chemistry, and Geology; English Language and Literature; Latin, German, and French; Metaphysics and Political Science.

3. The degree of Master of Arts (A.M.) will be conferred upon any Bachelor of Arts of this College who shall pass a satisfactory examination on courses of study prescribed by any two professors the student may choose.

   Students offering for the degree of Master of Arts (A.M.) are required to stand their examinations at the College.

LITERARY SOCIETIES.

The Calhoun and Preston Literary Societies meet weekly in their well-furnished halls for improvement in Declamation, Composition, and Debate. Their orderly management and generous emulation make them a helpful element of collegiate training, and they are regarded by both students and Faculty as an indispensible part of the machinery of instruction. Their Anniversaries are held in November, and their final celebrations during the Commencement Exercises.

The beneficial influence of these Societies confirms the authorities in enforcing the rule that every student on entering College shall connect himself with one of them.

READING-ROOM.

An excellent Reading-Room has been established and provided with a good assortment of magazines and newspapers. To the privileges of this Room all students are admitted. This has become one of the most popular and helpful educational influences of the College. Its effect is marked in the encouragement of a thoughtful inquiry into current questions; and it has conducted in no small degree to the growth of good reading habits among the students.

LIBRARIES.

The Libraries of the College and of the Literary Societies, containing six thousand volumes, conveniently arranged, are opened, under proper restrictions, to all students.

The Classical Library, bequeathed to the College by the late Prof. David Duncan, is a valuable collection of fifteen hundred volumes, comprising the Latin and Greek Classics, numerous commentaries and histories, and many old and interesting books not to be found outside a few select libraries.

DONATIONS.

Several bound volumes of the Southern Christian Advocate, presented by Messrs. Walker & Cogswell.

One hundred dollars from Rev. J. O. Willson for establishment of Thomas Loan Fund.

Microscope, magnifying 450 diameters, presented by Prof. A. C. Wightman, Ph. D., of the class of '79.

Specimens of opal and jasper, from the opal fields of Oregon, presented by Bishop W. W. Duncan.

Nodules or "bombs," from Chesterfield county, presented by Rev. J. B. Wilson, of the S. C. Conference.
RELIGIOUS OPPORTUNITIES.

All students are required to attend daily prayer in the College Chapel, and each student is expected to attend divine services on Sunday in any church he or his parents may prefer.

The Young Men's Christian Association is a blessing to every student. It is the object of its members to enlist every new-comer and to help him to become a Christian.

Its semi-weekly prayer-meetings are invaluable to the young Christian.

The new students may expect a hearty welcome, for a committee will meet them at the depot, and a reception will be given them in the Alumni Hall.

PRIVILEGED STUDENTS.

The sons of itinerant ministers are exempted from the payment of tuition, but are required to pay all matriculation fees.

LOCATION.

Wofford College is located in Spartanburg, a healthy and thriving town of upper South Carolina, situated twenty miles from the mountains, in a region noted for its healthfulness, its pleasant scenery, and the excellent moral tone of its people. It is the summer resort of many living in malarious parts of the State, and the abundant productions of the surrounding country make the cost of living in it unusually cheap.

ROUTES.

Spartanburg is easily reached by the following railways and their connections: Spartanburg, Union and Columbia Railway; Atlanta and Charlotte Air-Line Railway; Asheville and Spartanburg Railway; Greenwood, Laurens and Spartanburg Railway. Several telegraph lines offer students speedy communication with their friends.

WIGHTMAN HALL.

The Wightman Hall offers peculiar advantages to those wishing economical boarding. The average monthly expenses for the table is under seven dollars. Very material reduction in the expenses of a college course is gained by those wishing to board themselves. We invite correspondence with parents or students on this point.

ALUMNI HALL.

This building is now completed, and is a model of beautiful art and convenience. It is furnished with all modern appliances, and board is given young men at the minimum of cost.

EXPENSES.

Board, tuition, matriculation, washing, lights, fuel, books, and stationery, the necessary college expenses for the year, can be met with ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY DOLLARS. The advantages offered by Wightman and Alumni Halls enable students to meet their college expenses with this very small amount. Thus many of our students are able to meet their own expenses by money made during the summer vacation. Board in private families increases the expenses.

Tuition fee, payable in October and February, - $40.00
Matriculation fee, payable in October and February, - 10.00
Board from $7 to $18 per month.

Thus the expenses of the whole Collegiate year are:

The authorities beg leave to remind patrons that tuition fees must be paid in advance, half in October and half in February, and are not refunded in whole or in part except in case of protracted sickness.

If, for any reason, indulgence is desired, special arrangements must be made with the Treasurer of the College.

The Matriculation Fee must be paid in advance, half in October, half in February. This fee is not refunded in any case, and no indulgence is granted.

The Board of Trustees has made the following regulations to govern the financial administration of the College:

"Resolved, That the Treasurer shall have entire and sole charge of all matters connected with the finances of the institution; shall collect all fees due the college from students; and be responsible to the Board of Trustees, through the Executive Committee, for the proper discharge of his duties.

"Resolved, That the Treasurer shall collect the fees for tuition and incidental expenses for each session in advance. But whenever this cannot be done, he may, in his judgment, receive, for tuition alone, the note of the parent or guardian for the amount, bearing interest at the rate of eight per cent. per annum, and payable ten days before the close of the session, with the distinct understanding that, if not paid by that time, the pupil will not be allowed to pass to a higher class or to graduate. This is not intended to apply to the worthy young men, who are, under present regulations received, and who give their own note, payable after graduation."

ORIGIN AND OBJECT.

The lack of a sufficient number of preparatory schools in which the course of study leads up to the curricula of our colleges has compelled most of the colleges in the South to provide for sub-collegiate classes.
This extension of the college curriculum to include one or more sub-Freshman classes necessarily subjects to the same discipline, and with slight modifications to the same training, two distinct classes of students—collegiate and preparatory—the difference between whose ages and mental training should, and does, require a corresponding difference in method of training and in kind of discipline.

To this end the Fitting School was established by means of the hearty and generous co-operation of the friends of education.

Its growth has been encouraging. Since its opening in 1887, it has matriculated 495 students—an average of 95 a year.

At the opening of the next session, October 1, 1892, the school will begin its sixth year.

BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS.

The location of the buildings is beautiful, being on a high sandy ridge, overlooking the town and in full view of the mountains. An observatory on one of the buildings gives a fine view of the surrounding country. The campus contains fourteen and a half acres of land, part of which is beautifully shaded.

There are three brick buildings, three stories high, containing twelve rooms each, used as dormitories. There is also a large two-story brick chapel, the upper story of which is divided into recitation-rooms. There are several wells of fine freestone water on the premises.

BOARDING DEPARTMENT.

This department is under the control of Mr. T. D. Durant, late of Lynchburg, Sumter county.

In the management every effort is made to supply the table with nourishing and well-prepared food, and with as great variety as the price will allow.

In case of any apparently well-founded complaint, parents will confer a favor by writing at once to the Manager or to the Head-Master.

EXPENSES.

It has been the object to reduce the expenses to the lowest possible figure consistent with health and a proper degree of comfort.

From the following table of fixed and estimated expenses, it will be seen that the necessary expenses for the entire year (two sessions) may be brought within $150.

EXPENSES FOR ONE SESSION.

RULES GOVERNING PAYMENT OF DUES.

Tuition, Incidental and Medical Fees, and Fee for Fuel and Lights, must be paid by the session in advance. Board promptly at the beginning of each month.

For late entrance deduction will be made as follows: Charges for Tuition, Incidental and Medical Fees will include month of entrance. Charges for Board, Fuel and Lights will include week of entrance.
No deduction will be made for leaving school for any reason other than absolute necessity, or sickness. In no case will deduction be made from Incidental Fee.

FURTHER NOTES ON EXPENSES.

The Medical Fee insures the daily attendance of a physician at the school, and the best medical attention without further cost during any attack of sickness.

Each student is required to furnish his own towels, pillow, bed-clothing for single bed, and toilet articles.

Each student on entrance will be required to deposit with the Treasurer $3, from which will be deducted the cost of repairing any injury done by him to the furniture or premises. Whatever remains after these deductions are made will be returned at the end of the year.

When requested to do so, the Head-Master will see to the expenditures of students in town and prevent their making bills. In all such cases the parent must deposit money in advance to meet such expenditure, or make special arrangements with the Head-Master. In no other cases will money be advanced to students.

MANAGEMENT.

In dealing with the students placed under our care, we try to adapt our method of teaching and discipline to their mental, moral, and physical requirements, and to this end encourage among them a high moral tone, diligence, perseverance, and accuracy, and a proper participation in healthy exercises.

The discipline of the school-room is kind but firm, and each student is given as much work as he can accomplish consistently with thoroughness and good health.

In recognition of the great and lasting value of the Reading Habit united with an appreciation of standard works, each student is required to devote a half hour each afternoon to the reading of such books as the teachers suggest or approve.

The following are the rules for the government of boarders, obedience to which is firmly enforced:

I. Students must not leave the grounds without permission of the Head-Master.

II. No profane or obscene language is allowed.

III. Scribbling on the walls and soiling the floors by the use of tobacco are prohibited.

IV. Rooms must be kept neat and clean, and at no time are scuffling and disorder allowed therein.

V. The reading of trashy books is prohibited.

VI. Hours appointed for study must be strictly observed. During these hours there must be no visiting nor wasting of time.

VII. Borrowing or lending money is prohibited.

VIII. Punctuality at meals is required.

IX. Students are positively forbidden to own or have in their possession fire-arms anywhere on the premises. Any violation of this rule is visited with expulsion without further inquiry.

Demerits are given for every violation of the above rules, and in proportion to the degree of the offence—100 subjecting the student to expulsion.

Students coming from a distance, who have no near relatives in town, are required to board in the school. The reasons for this requirement are obvious. Parents look to the school authorities for the good behavior and diligence of their sons. The oversight and control necessary to assure these cannot be exercised over students who pass more than two-thirds of their time away from the school.

RELIGIOUS ADVANTAGES.

The students have organized a Y. M. C. A., which holds weekly meetings.

On Sunday students are required to attend Sunday school and at least one service at the church that their parents designate.

LITERARY SOCIETIES.

The Legare and Simms Literary Societies, with their growing libraries, offer to the students advantages that must prove a useful auxiliary to their mental training. In view of these advantages, the authorities feel justified in requiring all students to join.

SESSIONS—EXAMINATIONS.

The scholastic year is divided into two sessions, beginning October 1st and February 7th, respectively, and is coextensive with that of Wofford College.

At the close of each session the student will be required to pass a written examination on the work accomplished during the session. This with the class-stand will determine his fitness to advance with his class.

There is a tendency among parents to withdraw their sons just before or in the midst of June examinations. This results in loss to the student. Examinations are more than a test of knowledge. They are an educational instrument for teaching method, promptitude, self-reliance; for training in accuracy, and for developing in the student the power of concentration of attention and readiness in the shaping and arrangement of thought.

Unless in exceptional cases, and then only when the class-stand is above the average, all students failing to stand their June examinations will be required on their return in October to stand the regular entrance examination.

I.—PREPARATORY COURSE.

In this course the pupil is prepared for the Freshman Class in college. The requirements for admission into Wofford College are taken as the standard.

The course will cover three years.

JUNIOR CLASS.—For entrance into this class, the pupil must have some knowledge of the rudiments of English Grammar and of Geography, and must be well grounded in addition, subtraction, multiplication, and division.

Frequent dictation exercises will be given to drill the pupil in spelling, in the simpler rules of punctuation, and in the grammatical usages of the language. Throughout the English course, suitable books will be assigned for Parallel Reading—selections from which will be read aloud in the class as a drill in reading.

English Text-Books: Hyde's Practical Lessons in the Use of English, Part II.; Reed's Word-Book; Hawthorne's Tanglewood Tales and Wonder-Book; Parallel Reading.

Mathematics: Fractions, Common and Decimal, and Compound Quantities, will be thoroughly studied and reviewed. Text-Book: Wentworth's Grammar-School Arithmetic.

Geography: Maury's Manual; Ballou's Footprints of Travel.

History—Text-Books: Montgomery's American History; Brief Biographies; Practice in writing in connection with dictation exercises.
Bible: The study of the Bible is continued through the three years, and includes a systematic study of the Life of Christ, graded to suit the class, and an outline of Old and New Testament History.

Intermediate Class.—For entrance into this class, the pupil must pass a satisfactory examination on the work accomplished by the Junior Class or its equivalent.

English: Thorough drill in parsing. Analysis of simple sentence—synthesis of compound sentence. In composition, short and simple stories will be read to class for reproduction.

Text-Books: Hyde's Practical Lessons in the Use of English Language, Part II., with Supplement; Meiklejohn's English Grammar; Reed's Word-Book; Parallel Reading.

NEWBERRY, S. C., April 18, 1892.

To J. H. Carlisle, LL. D., President of Wofford College:

Dear Sir,—As secretary of a conference of representatives of colleges of South Carolina, held at Greenwood, April 15th, it becomes my duty to communicate to you the following resolutions adopted by the conference:

1. Proposed requirements for admission to the Freshman Class, to wit:
   - Mathematics—Arithmetic complete; Algebra, through Quadratics or to Ratio and Proportion.
   - Latin—Grammar complete; Composition (twenty-five lessons); Cesar, three books.
   - Greek—Grammar to Syntax of the verb; Composition as in White's, Lighton's, or Harper's Lessons; Anabasis, two books.
   - English—Grammar; a Composition of about 150 words based on some author (e. g., Irving's Sketch Book).
   - Geography—Descriptive.
   - History—United States, Greek, and Roman (e. g., Fennell or Barnes), combined with Ancient Geography.

2. That each of the colleges of the State be requested to prepare specimen examination papers, such as they expect candidates for admission into Freshman Class to pass, for consideration of a future conference.

3. To request the colleges to print the above requirements in their catalogues, whether adopted or not.

4. To meet again during the State Teachers' Association in Columbia, July 19-21, at the call of the chairman.

Respectfully,

A. G. VOIGT, Secretary.
